

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter Prologue

Prologue:

My name is Minami Kouya

Now that I was reincarnated, I called myself Kouya.

Even though I said I reincarnated, my body or a look didn't change much from my time in Japan.

The thing is for some reason it was decided that I would have to reincarnate from Japan to another world Amupatori, and for this, the goddess gave me several gift (power).

<Memory Kept Reincarnation>

<All languages translation>

<Super Enhanced physical ability>

<Super Mana>

<Connection to The Internet>

.....etc

I got a lot so I won't tell you right now, but these are the main ones.

And the one I gave special attention to was <Connection to The Internet>. For the past days, I've been an internet junky, so the ability was the one I was most happy on.

To be frank, In this day and age, I don't think anyone can live without it.

Plus this ability, it comes with the internet connected devices, really useful power.

There 2 types of devices, Smartphone type, and PC type, I can bring in and out with my will.

It uses mana rather than electricity but I have <Super Mana> so this level of problem is not something which bothers me.

Smartphone type is just like its name suggests, a portable light one-handed operated item.

So if you want a quick search than this type is the best.

As for the PC type, it may take up some space but the ability not only it summons PC itself but the desk and massage chair altogether, and I can also summon printer with the scanner so it's a really kind ability.

It is best when you want to have a thorough research.

Both of these devices had the same setting and outlook with the one I used in past life.

Thanks to that I don't have to reset everything and can use it in another world with fulfilling Internet environment.

And this is How my other world life, without any worry started.

internet 1

I who was sent to another world stood in the streets of some town.

The city scape that was spread in front of me was like medieval europe
Somehow I appeared in the market

Its suitable because my stomach is geting empty,I scouted the market around me looking for a food stool.

About money, Because I got as many as 100 gold coins as a farewell gift from the goddess there is nothing to worry about.

Taking out one piece from the bag of gold, I think while looking at it.
A gold coin, is quite an expensive thing

Usually there are many below gold like silver and copper.

And in this bag there is 100 pieces

Though when you use a gold coin to buy something in a stall there will be a fuss.

Oh, put such anxiety aside.To fill my belly for the time I call out to an auntie at a stall.

Thanks to<all language>there is no problem with the conversation.

[Obaachan Can I have a meat skewer]

I dont understand what kind of meat it is, But I decide to buy it anyway.

[that is 120G]

[does this suffice?]

I say as I hand over one gold coin

[Nnn?][I said it was 120G]

.....what?

The unexpected answer confused my thoughts

[na, naa, how many G is this coin worth?]

[From looking at it, it's clearly 1G]

The aunt answered in an amazed expression, I am almost thrown into despair.
One gold coin is 1G?

It might be so, but is it only the skewers?

120 G is impossible

This aunt might be trying to rip me off so skip this stand,there are plenty of other shops.

however , against my expectation all the stalls look to have a similar price.

The only currency that is used is G.

Because the civilisation is different I cannot clearly say but 1g appears to be worth 1 yen

Meaning my entire reserve is only 100 yen.

How can I survive with only 100 yen?

I abuse the goddess within my heart

[if this was in japan I could get a good price for this
I mutter so like a soliloquy while looking at this coin which is not usable
This has become a matter of concern, So I called out my smart phone.

search, search. tto

I search for a site where you could sell gold coins.

{‘Mystery Plaza’ A site for purchase of gold and other precious metals}

According the the information here, though I accurately predict without knowing the exact size and weight it seems to be worth around 15,000 yen.

When looking at the site I noticed something absurd in one of the sentences

{I will buy from anyone anywhere if you have any unnecessary precious metals I will buy it if so please send an application}

From anywhere, does this include another world?

With a careless attitude i press the button .

When I did suddenly a jewel like box appeared in front of me.

[wha, what is this?

I who cannot grasp the situation,Read the purchase explanation quickly on the website.

lets see.....

when I press the purchase buton, an exclusive box while be sent immediately even so it would be so sudden.

So, I put the article in the box and then the it will disappear when I close the box.

Timidly I put only one gold coin in the box then shut it.

The box went out in a flash beffore my eye and simultaneously in my hand I reseived and email on my smartphone.

I read the email while thinking about what it is.

{please let me thank you for the purchase application, I got the value below as a result of the assessment.}

There 15,000 yen was written.

But where is the money?

I thought so, but there was a continuation to the email.

{I transferred the amount specified to the following account}

The net banking account of which I had while in japan was recorded there.

Although I did not send that information, Though I did get an email confirming the money transfered correctly

Within my net bank I had 15,000 yen.

Uooo, In an instant the tension rose.

It is approximately 1,50,000 yen if i sell all of the 1G pieces

It only took me a moment to think about how delicious this is.

[though it's now in yen, how do I use it here?]

It was so.

It is easy to use it on the net, but this is a different world.

internet 2

For now my plan has ended but the amount in the bank did increase.

Though i did not forget this is a different world And it is current necessary for me to have currency that I can spend locally now.

[well i'm already weary]

I who lost a motivation had fun surfing the net on my smartphone in one hand.

[mm, this is good]

There was a prduct advertisement of a mail order site "mitsurin"

As a habit, I click it and moved to the order procedure.

I come to the destination address of the input column and become aware finally.

[I hate it... because this is a different world i can't use mitsurin]

I looked at that area carelessly.

[wha, seriously]

there [Another world(platinum members only)] was written.

Exactly, I was a platinum member (annual club due of 3,000 yen) [..... should I try it?]

Though it is normally impossible I have a use for the money from the sale of the gold.

There is no loss if I try it.

I enter the required information and move to the order screen.

[being a platinum member is advantageous now!]

Suddenly a message appeared at the bottom of my screen.

[wha]

The annual membership fee is 10,000 yen? , but it seems to be able to use the delivery system instantly In the first place the delivery is a mystery but otherwise I have no use for the money I have stored in my net bank. I ordered it.

[OK,Confirm order]

The instant I clicked that button a small cardboard box appeared before my eyes.

It is a box from mitsurin.

[oo , it's seriously fast]

Even though im in a different world it doesn't care.

Its truly no pushover.

Is this different world real?

Well. immediate delivery it is not normally possible even in japan.

When the box was opened, inside was the order of ten virtue knives

[well, what can I use this for?]

Ordering and delivery is fine, but why did I order this I impulse bought something that I cannot use.

[Though I now know I can buy japanese goods from mitsurin, so I assume its good]

Some time ago. The ability to change local currency to yen was discovered.

And the use of yen was also possible

Though now don't I only need to find something from Japan that I can sell at a high price here in another world?

I who thought so began to look through the Mitsurin catalog for such an item.

[mmm there is no such appealing item.]

From the mistake of buying the ten virtue knives the balance of the account is now only 10,000 yen. Such a knife does not hold any value as an impulse buy.

[I guess I will have to settle with salt]

If I am not mistaken I read somewhere that the quality of salt between now and the middle ages differs greatly.

As this civilization seems to be at that level maybe Japanese salt can be sold at a high price.

With such reasoning I ordered salt from Mitsurin.

I decided to order 5kg first of all as the price was 500 yen per kg there is no meaning to buy a cheap product if it does not sell.

As well as the time with the knife a cardboard box from Mitsurin appeared in front the same time that I pushed the order button

[I should palm this off to some merchant at a high price]

I go ahead downtown while holding the cardboard box.

With the use of <super strength> the weight did not affect me at all.

While walking I hit the shoulder of a person walking by which resulted in the box being dropped.

[Sorry. I wasn't watching where I was going.]

A young boy who appeared to have a good upbringing apologized to me so.

From the fact that he is also dressed good, he is probably a rich person.

[no no. please do not mind it.]

My tone changed unintentionally when I said so.

[it is so, but is the box you dropped all right?]]

[It is simply salt so there is no problem.]

even though I dropped it the mitsurin box was not even dent [hmm salt hah?]

For a moment the eyes of the boy turned sharp.

[did you bring it to some trading company?]

[No, I have not decide somewhere to sell it to.]

If I said the truth It would be I don't know where to sell it.

[If so , if you bring it to my place and if the quality is good I shall buy it]

[is that true? that's great!]

A purchaser is found at once it was such good luck.

[it is so, I shall lead you to my firm , as we are not acquainted, my name is Alumehi Huarena. Please just call me Al. and no need for the polite tone.

[.....understood, Al. I am Kouya]

[then Kouya shall we go?]

From this we came to the point of selling salt at Al's trading company.

internet 3

Having followed AI, there was a large building there.

It is clearly big in comparison to the neighboring building.

This seems to be the headquarters of a big company, the amount of people going in and out, it is quite intense.

[this is it]

With the guidance of AI, I entered the building timidly, and was guided to a parlor like room.

[then can I see the product]

AI who sat facing me said so.

I put the salt in the prepared contain and passed it to AI.

[Haa, Is this really salt?]

Of course I gave him the very common pure white salt.

[mm yes it is so]

[please wait a moment]

He said so as he scooped salt with his finger and licked it.

[It is salt certainly ... it is also very pure impurities. Where on earth did you get it [aa, well...]

It was bought using net mail order, but I can't say.

[ahh sorry, it's just I was just excited. I know suppliers are very important to merchants]

So saying; Al apologized

[Please raise your head, Al. Because i'm not worrying about it]

As for me, It is hard for me to stay modest.

[Ahh, thank you]

After curtsying lightly, sharp eyes were turned my way These are likely not to miss anything.

[I would like very much to buy this, how about leaving it here at my firm]

I almost nod unintentionally but I should not get impatient.

From the reaction earlier I understood that the salt has considerable value.
Then the first thing Is the confirmation of the value.

[How much will you give me if I sell it all?]

[hmm if you sell it all, I will give you 50,000 G]

I reflect on these words within my head quickly.

50,000

If every thing of this sale is sold as gold coins 50,000 pieces at 15,000 each will reach 750 million yen Only 5kgs of salt transformed into 750 million yen, that's crazy [yes I don't mind that amount]

I reply calmly as not to let out the feelings I hold inside [then, dealings complete]

A radiant smile floated on Al's face he stretched forth on hand In silence I grasp the hand that is offered.

[then about the payment please wait here for a little.]

[Understood]

I just became a millionaire. (tl: that was just over 7mil USD if converted from the 1g coins) In the first day of coming to another world I became rich.

My heart danced inside my chest.

internet 4

I was waiting for Al the bring out the money from the exchange [Aaa, I never thought I would be able to become a millionaire in my lifetime actualy before transmigating I never thaught I would get such a large sum [Sorry for the wait, Here is the money for the salt now]

so saying, Al handed me a small sack

[nn? Isn't this a bit small?]

[Ahh, because it was a large amount I paid in sage silver coin]

Huh? Saintly silver? What's that?

[The saint silver coins contain should be five pieces in total, you should confirm it]

After that was said I took a coin from the bag Inside there was 5 coins which shined like a star.

[.... indeed there is 5 coins inside ]

That? 50,000 gold coins?

[Then there is no problem with the transaction then.]

Al who was the only one who could understand the situation said so.

[Kouya, If you ever obtain more of this salt I will pay the same price again.]

As Al said that , he urged me towards the exit I walked out the store with a blank face, still not quite aware of whats happening.

[That was a good business talk today, let us meet again in the future]

So the goodbyes were said and Al disappeared into the shop [I got the money , but by any chance was I just swindled]

I wanted to get 50,000 gold coins, but instead I got just 5

The expectation was large and so was the surprise.

[What can I do with a silver coin!]

I who became desperate opened the precious metal site on my smartphone.

When I pressed the application button the jewel box appeared the same way as before.

I threw the five silver coins I got from Al into the box and closed the lid.

naturally, silver is cheaper than gold.

In the case of the amount several thousand yen is a high mountain to climb.

My plan was to have 750 million to roll into my hand.

But the shock I received from failing was indeed large.

[but the small amount of silver will not reach such amounts of money.]

I who become desperate muttered, while I opened the mail which I had received But within surprising content was written.

[ who, wha, Are you serious?]

{assessment amount 1 billion yen} (9 mil also over 1000 times investment return}

There is probably some mistake but I kept reading the details {As the metal saint silver does not exist on earth each coin was sold for 200 million yen, there is no mistake}

With only five silver coins a large amount of money was given, and the reason was written.

The silver which I received from AI was not any normal metal apparently.

It was unbelievable , but still I opened the online bank and written was.

Account balance 1,000,006,500

IT TRANSFERED 1BILLION

It was fairly profitable.

I was expecting 750 million from the gold coins.

But truly the amount I got was 1 billion.

The exchange rate is very good.

I shouted "The internet is GREAT" inside my heart

internet 5

slave trading company

I obtained the large sum of 1 billion yen in exchange for the 5 saint silver coins which I obtained from the sale of the salt.

Though I am relieved to have that amount of money in my bank account, but money in the form of local currency is worryingly low at only 99g.

Therefore I decide to leave for Al's firm after 20kg of salt from mitsurin.

As he said if I acquired more of that salt he would buy it at the same price.

I carry the cardboard box with 20kg of salt on my shoulder and head downtown.

Again this amount of weight is no match for〈Super strength〉

[Al! Please buy this salt!]

Luckily I could see Al immediately

[Ahh welcome back nice and early. Of course I will buy more of this great salt at the same price as before]

20kg of salt at the rate before would be a price of 200,000G . thus I obtained a large amount of money.

That night, I spent the time in a suitable hotel and reached the next day.

Concerning the account balance of the net bank there already is no insecurity
The problem is the local currency

Though I have 100000G was gathered in a hurry, if I continue the hotel living lifestyle that money will not last long Thus rudely I went to Al's again to sell salt

[Oya , today again?]

[Is that bad?]

[no no , because the salt from Kouya is of high quality it can be sold immediately, so even large amounts being sold is no problem]

Al showed me so with exaggerated manner.

[is that so. That saved me]

[...but if there is such a large amount, why do you carry it alone? Would it not be better to employ someone?]

Even if that is said today it is only my second day.

I don't even know who I should employ for this type of thing [well... then how about a slave. Because they cannot resist any orders from the master due to the subordinate collar, so there is no need to worried about being betrayed]

[indeed.....]

This is of course part of the template of going to another world.

...But surprisingly it is not such a bad idea.

[Would you like me to introduce you to a store?]

[Aa, please do that]

In that way, we came to slave trader that Al had recommended me.

[Ahh, An introduction from mr. Alumehi?]

The expression of the merchant softens when I showed them the letter of recommendation.

[As for the budget, just how big is it]

[Well right now my budget is 300,000G]

[for that amount, I cannot line up many high quality slaves]

[I do not mind that, buy please show a slave that will fit in the budget]

[certainly, please wait a moment]

After waiting for a while a middle aged man was brought in, and a young looking man. And then the last one a starving looking girl in her early teens.

They were all in poor health but especially the last girl who was covered in scars.

I have a feeling 300,000G is not that much.
Perhaps I severely underestimated the price of a slave.

[so are there any slaves lined up here that interest you?]

At first there is the middle aged man. But I do not think I can build a satisfactory relationship.

The second youth is definitely not good either.

Then the last one remaining is the scared girl.

As for now I only need someone who can carry the salt. I just need someone who can do some heavy lifting.

But I do not think these girls can do the heavy lifting.

When I was observing the girl our eyes connected for just a moment.

[Please help me] was the feeling I got from her.

[Aa. what about this child]

I murmured so while pointing at the girl

[Oh, fina is it? She is 270,000... however with the introduction I will give you a 20,000G discount. So 250,000]

It is still a nice discount with my small amount of local currency.

The slave traders word seems to be true and Al must be a merchant whose name is quite big.

I thank Al inside my heart

I obtained the slave girl Fina In this way.

Treatment

I who purchased fina the slave at the trader recommended by Al returned to the inn.

[Now, before self-introduction should I treat the scars?]

Honestly I am troubled at where to look.

I open the mitsurin site and buy all the tools required tools, disinfectant, ointment and gauze.

Fina made a surprised expression at all the cardboard boxes appearing immediately one after the other.

[first the hands and feet, it will hurt but please endure it]

[wa , yes]

After wiping lightly with the towel which was soaked with mineral water, the wound was then washed with the disinfectant.

[HYUUUU]

A weak voice leaked from the mouth from fina, when I cleaned the wound. To the cleansed wound I covered in the ointment.

Then a mysterious phenomenon happened

[wha, what is that?]

The wound which was painted in the ointment instantly started healing.

To be honest the state of the wound was slightly weird.

I looked at Fina to see if this happening is peculiar to a different world. But she seemed to be surprised as well.

To be honest. It's mysterious, but since it recovered, there should be no problem.

[next is the back please face away from me]

The expression of fina was confused but timidly turned her back towards me.

I roll up the tattered shirt and treated the back of fina [aannn]

I have the feeling that the voice leaked out with some sensuality, but surely it was just my imagination.

I just decided to ignore it and concentrated on the treatment.

The back had many more wounds than when compared to the hands and feet, her eye grimaced in pain but the wounds were all slowly closing.

[next is the front, please do it just as I had by yourself as I am turning away]

Still even a girls whose chest still has not grown, to see the girl's body can attract attention [wa, I understand]

When I passed the remedy tools to Fina, I moved my gaze to the wall behind me.

She seems to have taken of the shirt as I can hear the brushing of the fabric in my ear.

I am attacked by heat when I thought about the girl who is naked to down to the waist, but with a shake of the head the feeling went away.

[auuu]

As expected the front has many wounds just like the back.

The voice which moans in pain reaches my ears.

I'll just ignore the noise and wait for the treatment to be done.

[It is done]

[is that so]

when I looked back, there was the form of fina with all the wounds everywhere completely cleared.

[It has become very good]

It is great power in this ointment.

I seem to have used a magic item, and the wound was cured in an instant.

Though it is profitable to sell to Al, but I also need to show prudence

[oh, yes, THANK YOU MASTER]

So saying, fina had a bright smile on her face.

I seem to have gained a constant trust from fina from this.

I breath in to relieve my heart

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter 7

Jelly drink

Because the treatment was complete, I decided to move on to the self-introduction [My name is Minamiya Kouya, please just call me Kouya, I am 18 years old]

[m,my name is Fina, A human of 13 years of age]

13 years old already, I thought it would be less.

....the growth was probably late due to malnourishment.

[now that treatment and introductions are done, we should probably get some food into you]

Operating the smartphone, I opened to net mail order site.

[please wait a minute]

Looking at the ragged state of Fina I decide to go for some that is easy to digest, So I chose a jelly drink that came in a silver package This is simple to eat

When I ordered the mitsurin box appeared suddenly infront of me.

[Here please eat this]

I say so as I hand the jelly drink from the box to fina [this.....?]

[yes, please eat it]

I say so as I open the lid of the drink and have a taste.

The taste is just as usual

It also is easy to digest.

[like this? ... ... Glub Glub]

Fina copies me and eats the jelly

[th,this is very delicious]

While I'm delighted to see her happy isn't this over reacting However it is good.

But Fina who had finished hers looked at me with wet eyes.

[it's fine to have some more if you want]

Because six of them came in one box so there is still four left [y,yes THANK YOU VERY MUCH!]

Fina then attached her mouth to the second pouch With tremendous spirit, the plastic pouch is being dented, oh it's all gone [well uh]

[yes yes, you can have more]

In a short amount of time fina drank up all the remaining jelly Though it is good, will her stomach be safe [s,sorry , drank all of them, because they were too good]

[no, please don't mind it, are you feeling a little better]

[YES!, I can feel the power gushing out from inside!]

that being said, if you look at Fina you can see that her skin has become glossy Is it my imagination?

[it's good you look more invigorated]

[Truly thank you]

The refreshing smile comes from Fina and makes me feel good.

[oh, if you look closely this child is quite cute]

Now that the nutritional replenishment is complete with the use of jelly drinks, it is now time for the main subject [Fina. now is the time to explain the work that is given to you]

Originally all the selling and transport was going to be left to the slave, but it is too unreasonable to do such a thing to a small girl.

Fina stiffens at my words, because of that I need to put those feelings at rest [It is quite simple it's not a major thing, just when one person is not enough, I just want you to lend your strength]

In that way I have begun to work in order to earn local currency with the help of Fina.

nutrition drink

Around one week has passed since I purchases Fina I could say one week but It passed fairly quickly

[ok, Fina let's try our best]

[yes ,mr. Kouya]

The two of us opened the lid of the nutrition drinks, put one hand our hips and drank.

Every day, I drink this before going to work. It has become part of th morning routine.

[um, Mr Kouya should I pull the cart today?]

Fina asked so while swinging side to side

[It's quite heavy that would be unreasonable wouldn't it?]

Over this one week, Fina's body which had become skinny due to starvation has recovered, through having three big meals per day.

Compared to the start where it was hard to walk now is like an entirely different person.

The worn clothes were also changed to some brand-new Japanese made children's wear.

Though the small build does remain, her skin looks healthy and a bright smile usually shines on her face, suitable for a 13 year old girl.

[maybe, it will be alright. I'm feeling stronger now]

No matter how healthy, Fina is still only 13 years old.

Moreover she is small for her age

It's a bit unreasonable but, since she says she wants to do it, it should be fine ..... if it becomes dangerous, I will help right away, so there should be no problem.

[let's go!]

The cart is fully loaded with salt and spices, enough weight that a common adult may have trouble.

I didn't think Fina would be able to move it herself but it was different, and unexpected situation happened.

[Aaa, its unexpectedly light]

There was the figure of Fina, easily pulling the cart.

.....what is up with that?

[Fina... .. are you sure you're not part dwarf]

Dwarf is a race who possess a large strength when compared to human.

On the other hand the average height is considerably lower in comparison to humans.

[I am pure human. Because father and mother were both normal humans as well

[is that so ... but why are you so strong?]

[perhaps... ]

[Do you have an idea?]

[y, Yes. The nutrition drink that Mr. Kouya gives me every morning, when I drink it. My body feels refreshed]

[hmmmm]

We both drank at the same time but I felt nothing in particular.

But the same thing happened with the ointment that I bought online. It may be the same kind of event happening with the nutrition drink.

How ever, I do not have enough information to confirm it, let's see how things go for now.

If Fina can pull the fully loaded Cart that's a win for me Lets rejoice.

I want a house

A total of two weeks have passed now.

It has reached a point where Fina can pull the cart by herself, the efficiency has increased as well as the profit from trading with Al.

The two of us pull the cart which is full of boxes which each contain the commodities we sell. Today we are heading to see Al at the Fareno Firm The amount of product we sell to Al has increased over the two weeks I purchased a cart in order to increase the transaction quantity, and also allows us to diversify the products we sell.

Above all of them is the spice pepper which sells at a particularly high price.

[there is a large amount today as well, but you should move the amount of product slower, or at least cover it better the other firms will not take long to gain interest in you and your cart]

[Aa. I understand, thank you for the advice]

Since I pull the cart through downtown every day, even if I cover it with a cloth it is impossible to hide it completely I must think of a better way.

[A large amount of money has been earned in this half moon hasn't there Kouya?]

[that is true around 30 million G]

[.... wow that's enormous. It is a good thing to share the profits]

[Yes, I hope you are getting a good amount of profit with that]

Still I have not known this fellow for very long

[hu hu , By the way has Kouya not entered the commercial guild?]

[Commercial guild what's that?]

「そうか。最近この国に来たと言ってたから、知らないのも無理ないかもしれないね。折角だし教えてあげるよ」

I said so and Al explained the commercial guild

It is a cooperative union of registered merchants, for merchants to help other merchants A peddler like doesn't have the connections, but the influence of a person is quite large if they own a shop, like Al.

When registering though it is necessary to pay the guild some money according to the merchants earnings every year.

[Though peddlers such as Kouya do not usually register. With the large amount of product you are trading, if you register later on there might be a problem]

[Aaa. thank you for the advice]

I earned 30 million G, in just half a month.

When compared to a regular peddler I have made a large amount.

As a consequence other merchants are likely to get jealous I have also gradually grown tired of the hotel living.

With the amount of money I have I could probably even buy a house.

Whether or not I use that as a store has not been decided yet, but anyhow I want a place I can use as a base.

After all while i'm in another world I want a place to call home.

Let us buy a house

Nearly a whole month has passed after doing business with Al for the first time.

I had set a goal for earning 50 million G and at that point I would buy A house.

After asking Al I was introduced to a trading company that handles real estate, at which I am looking at

[..... A letter of introduction from Mr. Alumhi? I am Ruihi acting head of the trade company, pleased to make your acquaintance]

Ruihi the middle aged man introduced himself. I felt as though he has the atmosphere of a good natured person Even Fina who is beside me does not look frightened.

Carelessness is a taboo, but with Al's recommendation it would not be necessary to be strained to feel so.

Thanks is given to Al in my heart

He really saved me

[What type of property were you looking for?]

[I want to buy a house as large as possible, even if the house is slightly damaged I do not mind. And the budget is 30 million G]

I quickly told Ruihi about all the requirements Dissatisfaction runs through me who come from far more developed Japan when I walk through the houses of this world I will purchase land and a house first, and then slowly rebuild it.

The area will also matter if I want to build a store in the future as well [is that so, I have a building that may fit the description [this is a building that we have just recently acquired, it was previously an orphanage, but the damage is quite advanced but it is quite large and fits the request]

[Sound good while you be able to show me the real thing?]

[Certainly, I will guide you]

The place that Ruihi had guided me to certainly met the request.

There was a weed filled wasteland with a large one-storied house in the center.

The building itself seems to be quite damaged but that I do not mind to much.

[how much is this?]

[Since you were recommended by Alumehi, how about 25 million?]

I have not yet grasped the market price of this world but with this amount of land it did indeed feel as though it was cheap.

I checked slowly and carefully as not to overlook anything [I really want to see the condition of the building may I go inside?]

[of course. I will come with you]

[Mr. Kouya I will come too]

The three of us enter through the front door of the house.

[Mm, It truly is a bit ragged]

[It somewhat fell apart from time]

[though something does feel strange]

Ruihi looked puzzled when I said so.

[what is it?]

Before hearing the answer there was a accident

[Please wait a moment!]

With such words, one woman turned up from among the building [Wasn't this a vacant house?]

I glare at Ruihi unintentionally.

Ruihi had an expression that looked like he didn't know what was happening.

[Please do not take this orphanage away from the children]

The women shouted and lowered her head deeply.

both me and Ruihi exchanged looks with each other.

Orphanage

I faced a situation which I did not understand well with a young woman in front of me deeply bowing her head.

[can you please explain the situation first please]

I have to woman put up her head to hear her story first.

[I am lizulia. Graduate of this orphanage, now I take care of the children] (note she uses watakushi very polite and formal) Even With the unkempt hair and unrefined appearance, she seems like a beautiful woman.

But. she is surprisingly thin. To a worrying degree, she definitely does not eat well.

[Originally we received support from the church enough to run the orphanage, but in recent years the amount has been decreasing and we have faced great hardship with the financing]

Oh. the operation in such facilities is also serious in japan, as well.

It is probably the same even in another world.

[There was once a merchant who helped us, however his aim was this land and robbed it from us in the form of debt]

Such vicious merchants exist

[oi, Ruihi did you do such a thing?]

I glared at Ruih

[I only heard it was bought because it was an orphan home that shut down]

Ruihi spoke of such an excuse with an upset expression.

.....I do not get the feeling that this is a lie.

[then can you not return it with you authority?]

[... that is very difficult as our firm did not acquire directly but through another trading company]

Ruihi said so while looking at the document with a difficult expression Then the guy who sold this off to the tate company is the criminal.

[then ... what will happen to the orphanage]

[It is impossible to just drop it do to the time since it was bought from the other company, so it must be sold]

Ruihi then sent his gaze to me

[Mr. Kouya]

Fina who was next to me also had a sad expression while looking up at me/

Urrg, Unless I buy it now I will feel like a villian [Okay, I will purchase the land, however Ruihi please reduce the price]

[I understand then I will drop the profit of the sale and will give it to you for 20 million]

I then gave Ruihi 20 million of my 50, but I do not know if I really gained anything from this.

And thus I gained the rights to the orphanage.

Girl's desire

Fina POV

I am Fina, Mr. Kouya's slave

Roughly half a year ago I lived in a farming village in the country of sekami religion, stella sion.

Living in the farm village was easy. Gentle parents, happy every day. But we were poor

But such normal days were over

Bandits attacked the village

Both mother and father were killed, aswell as all the adults Me and my younger brother and one other kid the same age as us were caught and sent to a slave merchant.

I do not want to remember much of that life.

I merely jolted with the carriage, conversation was not permitted.

A meal was not given and if you asked about it you were beaten immediately

Such a life continued on until we ended up in a small town where we were sold
[Sir this one here is a virgin this one has a high price]

[you fool. Do not damage the commodity so much. Damaged goods cannot even earn 1G]

After such exchanges, I was sold to a different slave trader this time.

The new merchant did not use violence, but the meal was just as bad as ever.

I who was always small, continued to grow smaller There was countless scars on my body and I was thin due to starvation.

Sure enough, there were many opportunities for me to be sold, but everyone who looked at me was disgusted The longer I was not sold the more my despair grew.

At that time was when I met Kouya

I was looked at like always, but I was surprised because Kouya who had looked at me had a sad expression.

I who looked into his eyes to not see any malice.

Somehow I want you to save me

Was that feeling really transmitted, Kouta actually bought me

In this way I became Kouya's slave .

It was selfish don't you think. I appealed when I wanted him to buy me However my fear disappeared because of that.

I followed Kouya all the way to the inn where he was staying and then said the first thing to me

[Then we should treat the wounds before self introduction]

Then without another word many boxes appeared around the room.

I did not understand what I was watching

After that Kouya took out a beautiful new cloth from one of the boxes.

Then wet the cloth with a transparent liquid from a different box

[first will be hands and feet it will hurt but please deal with it]

[y,yes]

Without understanding the meaning of the word, I answered Kouta.

[Hyau]

He started wiping my body with the cloth.

I who did not anticipate the action let out a strange sound.

Because the cloth wiped my dirty skin it instantly became black.

As a slave is it alright that the cloth was wasted on me, it looked expensive.

Next kouya took out a round container, inside was a cream colored sticky paste, which was spread onto my wounds.

I was uneasy, but a slave cannot resist the master.

Then I felt an itch, it was hot, strange, it was where the paste was spread Then the wound slowly closed.

The scene was slightly weird.

There was rumours about a high class magic medicine that closes wounds instantly but such a thing would be a waste on me

Using such an expensive thing on another party did not phase Kouya, he kept the same look on his face the entire tie Afterwards, my entire body was treated, my original figure was returned

[aah , it became much better]

It really is the truth

[y,yes Thank you master]

I gave my utmost thanks to Kouya.

After self introduction Kouya gave me a silver bag with a strange shape It seemed to be food but, I did understand it.

[this?]

[well, you do this, and then you eat it]

Kouya demonstrated the way to eat it.

Imitating that, I such out the content of the sack [Its delicious glub glub]

At any moment until now such a mysterious flavour and texture reach my mouth.

I ate it quickly unintentionaly.

I who just became a slave consumed the mysterious food too quickly.

Because I was sad, I just stared at Kouya.

When Kouya saw me he was not angry, but he did pass me a new one.

After that I went crazy and emptied all the bags [I'm sorry I ate all of them. It was too delicious.....]

[No, don't worry about it, rather do you feel better now?]

To I who apologized, kouya looked at me with a gentle smile on his face.

[Yes. I feel invigorated!]

A mysterious feeling ran through my body.

Is it by chance this food is magic or something.

After that Kouya face became serious.

[Fina, Now I will explain the work that will be given to you]

From the precious happenings I know Kouya is a kind person But with what he said I unintentionally stiffened [You do not need to worry, it is just you will lend you strength when it is needed]

A smile floated on his face that put me to rest.

A girl's desire 2

According to Kouya the work I am going to be doing is more of a chore and will not be painful Rather only Kouya works, I just feel useless

Usually the labour would be left to a slave

There is three meals a day where I can eat till I'm full, and a bath everyday though it was expensive.

Also the room from the inn had two beds one was for me for what I was surprised about, Usually slaves would sleep on the floor.

The room itself looked expensive as well with the amount of furniture that was in it.

I was rescued from a hell like place, and put into such a luxurious situation, how can i ever repay Kouya.

One day I worked up the courage to ask something of Kouya.

[it is quite heavy would that not be unreasonable]

Kouya looked at me with a concerned face.

[maybe , it will be ok, recently i've been feeling stronger]

There is no lie to those words

Recently my physical strength has grown

Especially because I am small, the difference is very noticeable In order to prove my words I went and moved the cart.

[Fina..... , are you sure you aren't half dwarf?]

There were only humans in my village and any race mixing in my ancestors was heard about.

[No I am pure human both father and mother are normal humans]

[is that so..... but then why are you so strong?]

[perhaps]

I thought of a certain fact.

[is there any idea?]

[y, yes. The drink that Mr. Kouya gives me every day, when I drink it I feel refreshed]

The strength only came out because Kouya gave me all the strange food to eat, but the nutrition drink was different.

It cannot be expressed in words well but I can feel a clearer change In fact the quantity of the product increased when I became able to push the cart, and Al was quite pleased with that Kouya also thanked me and seeing his smiling face also gave me a happy feeling.

I thought it would be nice to live just the two of us But there was some uneasiness at the same time Even if Kouya is a wonderful person.

He has the power to summon the boxes and is strong and know many things.

それに夜中にわたしが寝静まったのを見計らって、毎晩何かをやっている様子ですし、奴隷のわたし以上に多分長い時間働いています。

I became to pull the cart and help Kouya much more than before But it doesn't need to me. So I would like to get stronger for Kouya.

It is such a day

Kouya said he wanted to buy a house.

Certainly living in an inn money is wasted.

So it is an agreeable thing to do, but a problem occurred here.

The house that Kouta was going to buy was the old orphan home.

And in this kind of situation the orphanage will be crushed and the children thrown into the cold.

It was the edge of a cliff

[But... what will become of the orphanage?]

A woman called lizulia who managed to orphanage said so [It is impossible to just drop it after holding onto it for so long it must be sold...]

While Ruihi of the tate company, said such a thing he sent his gaze at kouya.

Seeing that form. I was convinced

The way Kouya rescued me, he will definitely save the orphanage too]

I wanted to live with just the two of us, but I know it is not good to monopolize Kouya.

I hope he rescues more people in the future

[Mr. Kouya...]

Just murmuring so, and the gaze is all i need to convey my feelings.

[Aa. understood , I will purchase this land however Ruihi I hope you will take responsibility and make it cheap.

Somehow my feeling was transmitted again.

Certainly, the children are rescued now.

Children of the orphanage.

I who should have been buying a house instead brought a orphanage in order to not lose face I finished the purchase, then returned to the orphanage with Fina.

[Thank you, for saving the orphanage Mr. Kouya]

Izulia who was waiting at the entrance bowed deeply and thanked me [It is too early to feel relieved I only purchased the building and land, there is still the problem of the management cost]

[f,for that we can collect donations and]

[there is no support from the church?]

[An allowance has yet to arrive and because of that all the children are hungry]

The merchant who stole the orphanage also might be influential member of the church.

[Fine fine. I will provide the meals and clothes, but I assume the other party will work for me as well]

Well, there is no problem because yen is in abundance and there is no problem if I stock everything uses net mail order.

And if the account does run dry I can just sell more of the saintly silver.

[for now please guide me inside]

[Understood]

So we go inside the orphanage under the guidance of lizulia [uuu. the floor is rotting it's a bit scary]

It is as Fina said, inside the orphanage is in a terrible state the floor is rotting and ragged.

[Children please gather here]

There were 20 children that gathered in the wide room with lizulia.

As for their ages they range from 5 years to those of around Fina's age, all look thin a bit like the former Fina.

[... are you eating?]

Well if they are all in this kind of state it looks like that did happen [if it is not already crowded please lend a room for me and Fina]

[yes. Mr. Kouya]

First a proper meal should be made for them.

I borrowed one of the better rooms and used the smart phone in there.

Though it would be better if I was able to prepare a warm meal but this place is a bit under equipped For the time being I order a large amount of jelly drinks from the netmail order. Lets just fill their stomachs first The cardboard boxes appear in sequence and the floor creaks Please don't break

[Fina please distribute these to the children and also teach them how to drink them]

[yes sir!]

Fina grabs a cardboard box and goes to the children's aid I then brought the blankets clothing and other necessities the children.

At first living in these condition is quite bad.

While looking at the growing pile of boxes I thought of such a thing.

internet 15

The jelly drink that Fina distributed seemed to of gotten a good reception with the children [seriously ..... TASTY!!]

[what is this... it's GREAT!]

They raised joy in the first thing they've eaten for awhile.

There are also many children who eat alone.

I was surprised at the adverse reaction to the jelly drink Now that I think about it, it is quite rare for meals to be eaten with seasoning.

For them this must be a first tasting something like this.

I then distribute the blankets and clothes with Fina while all the children enjoy the jelly drink.

[What are these]

Lizuria muttered so with a surprised expresion [Do not mind it and receive it in silence]

[waa it's enormous]

[This is good]

The children all showed happy faces and seemed energetic after receiving the meal [oi oi, please do not fight there is still many more]

[[YES]]

When we said so they all replied obediently What good children

[I'm sorry ,Mr. Kouya handling everything]

[Do not mind it, for payment I just need three people to help me tomorrow]

So saying , I point out 3 children around the same age as Fina.

One boy and two girls

[as for that ... what kind of work?]

Lizulia take one step forward so to protect them [Ah it's is just simple work.
The same stuff that Fina does]

[... I see I see. Lloyd, Teana and snow please come here for a moment]

At once lizulia called the three children.

I actually have no intention of swindling anyone here.

I will only require assistance sometimes [what is it lizulia-sensei]

[Yes sensei?]

the three people who were called came.

Lloyd, who looks slightly mischievous is the boy As for Tiana. She is a slightly tall girl who seems to be lively.

Snow is a Girl of a quiet atmosphere, and furthermore is slightly smaller than Fina.

[Because Mr. Kouya is feeding everyone in the orphanage you three will need to help him work, is that fine?]

[if it's to help everyone it is alright]

Lloyd answers like that while rubbing the back of his head with his hand [I understand sensei]

Tiana replies with a serious expression [..... I understand]

Snow just simply says that and nods without changing expression.

I was expecting some repulsion but it seems it was all fine.

All of them a good children aren't they

[As the work is for tomorrow please rest today, because a meal is left here for tonight and the morning please divide it among everyone and eat]

Fina with me I return to the inn to stay our last night.

For the children I left block type nutritional food and the jelly drinks the same as earlier Because I was able to help the children I am happy, and hope they enjoy the food even if they cant drink it cold, the best way to have it.v

Uninvited guest

The next morning Fina and I load the cart with all our baggage from the Inn and head out to the orphanage.

[Mr. Kouya what is the schedule today?]

Fina asked so while looking at my face.

The golden hair which was previously gloomy has now become glossy The figure overflowed with a pure charm of a 13 year-old girl [First of all we are going to repair some of the tattered building, so it is in a livable condition]

Though the building will be rebuilt sooner or later, we do need somewhere to live.

[Because there is a lot of heavy labour I will rely on Fina]

[y,yes!. Please leave it to me Mr.Kouya]

Fina answered so delightfully

[I was waiting Mr. Kouya]

Still, in spite of being the early time of 7 o'clock lizulia was waiting at the entrance of the orphanage She seems to have eaten well, she seems visibly more energetic than she was yesterday [have you already eaten breakfast]

[I have already eaten the children are about to eat soon as well]

[ah then as soon as they have finished please ask the three to come out]

The building of the orphanage is rather large.

Even if it is only a slight repair It may take more than one day [I understand, after that is there anything I should do?]

[Lizulia should take care of the children]

[... but]

Lizulia was going to say something but I pushed her away with my hand [Do not mind it someone to watch the small children is necessary [..... I understand, if you need me you only need to raise your voice.]

While she had a complicated look, I think she understood.

Lizulia withdrew gently

[So then let's go Fina]

[YES!]

Fina seems strangely enthusiastic

Though her appearance has somehow become pleasant And so with that we begun work on repairing the orphanage.

At first I block up the many holes.

I operate the smartphone in one hand while directing fina.

I prepared the tools and the like yesterday, but concerning the material I ordered that locally as I thought of it as less work.

[Ah , sorry for being slow]

A little later Lloyd and snow came.

[very well then, tiana and Lloyd can you please repair the outside wall, and fina and snow repair the floor]

I gave appropriate instructions while watching while watching all four of them work, while moving between the inside and outside of the building.

Because all of the members are amateur including me, who issue instructions it isn't very efficient but the work still progressed steadily.

We had a break for lunch before and were about to start work again but then an obstacle entered.

[such a rag like house why would you repair it?]

Some bad looking men came onto the site rudely [What is it to you]

I stood outside meeting the visitors of course blocking the entrance Behind me the children look scared

[Who are you bean jam?]

[it is the owner here]

[Ah so bean jam here brought the building?]

A guy who looked like the leader come forward [well then bean jam how about I take this build off you for 1 million G?]

Selling it for 1/20 of the price?

[haa?]

[we are with the depotowaru trading company]

Depotowaru company... where have I heard that name before Certainly it is the company of which the subordinate of Ruihi brought this orphanage from.

In brief it is the group that cheated the home of the orphans away.

[Fine fine I was offering a good sum of 1 million]

Then the man got quite mad

[Ahh wasn't it quite a good offer, GORRRAA!] (this was not leader but one of the subordinates) As he shouted that he kicked a hole in the wall we just spent that effort on building.

The part that was just repaired was broken again Unintentionally, I glared at the man with a mix of bloodthirst in it.

Against the action of his subordinate the leader stopped him with a gesture of the hand [oh please settle down, well then bean jam please give it more thought we will come again]

As he said that, he just turned and walked away.

All the other men also followed

I was silent and watched them walk away

The trouble had gone away and then work continued until it was dusk.

The hole that was smashed was repaired.

Because it was amateur work it all looked quite bad. besides that all of the parts of the floor that looked like it would break from just standing on it was repaired.

[Thank you Mr. Kouya because of your work the cold draft coming from outside was fixed]

Even though in this climate we do not need to worry about freezing to death, it is now much more comfortable.

[well don't worry about it, though this is just a temporary fix , complete rebuilding will likely be needed]

In the first place the foundation of the building is built very poorly it would definitely fall to the building standard act.

But well the japanese buildings all need to be earthquake proof.

Then let's investigate the neighborhood for now.

[Regarding the people who can earlier]

Lizulia look at me with a worried expression [Aaa those people don't worry i'm thinking of a way to fix that]

Not just lizulia but all the other children as well are worried But now we should all rest

Deporowaru company

That night after confirming everyone was asleep I slipped out by myself.

After work ended I went to visit Ruihi and heard the story concerning the depotowaru company [I told my subordinate, that those guys should never be dealt with. But it seems it is part of a money making scheme]

[there is a rumour going around about these guys, it's that they buy land very cheaply though use of threats]

There is no positive evidence, but the merchants who go against them, usually die from unnatural deaths [You should be careful as well Mr. Kouya. You never know if they are going to use underhanded tactics]

A worried look floats on his face. I should probably follow his advice [Thanks for the warning]

[No worries, but you should also stay away from the depotowaru store just in case]

I run through the darkness, towards the depotowaru store the location I got from when he was warning me not to go there It was a large building in the center of town.

[So here is the depotowaru store]

Though it is nothing compared to the Fareno company it is still a very large building.

Though thinking about this only made me angry, they got this money though cheated people.

Despite it being night there is still a light on I wanted to hear the circumstances from some of these people so it is convenient.

I use one of the abilities that the goddess gave me〈Silent space〉

The entire building is covered in an invisible barrier Now that can't be noticed i get a little excited.

[I will just bother you a little]

I break down the door and enter inside

[w,what! ,You!]

The people who heard that gathered around me.

I felt safe, because most of these guys seem weak [It's you from today!]

It seems someone here remembered me

[you who have interrupted my gentle way of life. This crime is punishable by death, but if you disband this company and leave town I will overlook it. CHOOSE WELL!]

I declare loudly for everyone to hear.

Someone yelled something, maybe coercing everyone to come attack me [you smell bad, stay away]

As for me I calmly swung my right and and threw a man across the room.

The large man who I played pinball with smashed against the wall.

[... wh,what did you do wareee!]

The other party who all saw it faced me simultaneously Among them was someone with a sharp tool of some sort.

So I quickly sent a spinning kick at one of the men closest to me.

With that alone , everyone vanished.

[n.noo, Call SENSEI!]

One of the people standing around quickly ran to the inner part of the building
[My my , why are you all so noisy]

After a while a man with a gloomy atmosphere showed up He wore a navy blue rob and had a long stick in one hand The middle aged man looked like a wizard

[Who thinks they can defeat I , who is of the bishop rank, who has come to fight me?]

Ah such a loud person

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter 18

Kick

I who attacked the depotowaru store am now facing a bishop [sonburu sensei, please help]

Because reinforcements arrived all the men shout and forget about me I really dislike this bird head.

[It is troublesome ..... but I will help of course, with payment from my labour]

Sonburo the loud person said that while holding the stick in the air He said he was of bishop rank but, I don't know how strong that is, so I will let him show his strength [Wind blade cutter]

A magical blade of green flies out of his stick [as expected of another world]

The blade of wind approached my left hand [na, what was that]

The languid expression on his face turned to astonishment [well]

[damn, how about this!]

So saying Sonburu raises his stick high again His actions are full of weaknesses. But I don't do anything, so I can see the precious magic of this world.

After waiting a whirlpool of flame came out of sonburus stick.

[Fear my strongest magic FLAME TORRENT RIVER]

[Such a thing....]

When I rose my left hand the torrent of fire disperses [fu, foolish]

Because his strongest magic was easily stop his face changed to dispair [ ... ah , now is it my turn?]

I said so while forwards kicking of the ground.

[kiee]

Without saying another word I kicked the noisy sonburu [GUHEE!!]

After I kicked him I yelled and flew through many walls [How, sonburu sensei]

Everyone from the deporowaru company had their mouth hanging [now then who is next?]

After asking that everyone had a face full of fear Afterward , I believed there was enough fear placed in all of the depotowaru company.

[Now then, please don't do such things again, other wise I will get annoyed again]

All I wanted was a peaceful life in a different world While thinking like that I returned to the orphanage.

Behind me was a pile of men and rubble.

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter 19

The next day after dealing with Depotowaru company I went to the Fareno firm.

[Last night the Depotowaru company was attacked by an unknown person]

[ahh, that's dangerous]

Though as I am the one who attacked them I have nothing to worry about [They seemed to of annoyed someone, with their wrongdoings]

I saw some worry in Al's eyes but I cannot tell him he has nothing to worry about So I have decide to go with the flow.

[Aaa. of course, as a trading company I am indebted to them]

It seems that they are hired to guard luggage and traders when they are in town and going between towns, and also for temp work, like physical labour [Because it is only Fina and I, and Fina is still a child, would it not be better to hire a guard?]

Because the orphanage still need protection, I cannot stay there all day every day.

This is really bad when compared to living in Japan after all.

[Well it is indeed out of my jurisdiction though I can write a letter of introduction]

[Ah, thanks]

[Kouya , Fina and you seem to be the only ones working, Just how do you do it?]

[Ah that, I can't tell you the full way because it is a trade secret, but If I do have another money-making Idea I will be sure to talk through it with you]

[ha haa, I look forward to it]

I leave Al, and the Fareno company to advance on the road to the adventurer guild.

When I went inside, it was like a wide bar.

Even though it was still daytime, people who were drinking could still be seen [oi oi , boy over there this is not a place for a guy like yo A large skin headed man, said that to me

[I get it, I get it]

[then you better get out quickly you brat]

To the man's voice cheers gathered

So I just sigh and ignore everything going on inside [Oi you got courage there brat]

With a Gatan two large skinhead men stood up and blocked my way.

[Would you please move out of the way]

[only if you lick the ground and apologize to me, brat]

In order to overpower me the man tries to threaten me Though I am not particularly short they are gigantic figures who exceed 2m From the side it would like two adults bullying a child however...

[even beasts and sense the power difference between them and their opponent I suggest you learn to do the same]

The next moment I snuck behind him grabbed his right hand and twisted it up and around to the back of his head where I then pushed him to the floor.

[Guhee]

The the large man's mouth such a miserable voice leaks out [Now how about you lick the ground and apologize to me]

though I said that to the large man on the floor there is no answer [what a stubborn guy, you don't mind if I make it more painful to you?]

I then noticed the big man's eyes turn white and bubbles coming out of his mouth [..... ah this guy was weaker than I thought]

I separate from him stand up and look around When I looked around all those who gave hoots earlier were now standing with their jaws dropped.

[A brat just beat, gustav]

[gustav was of bishop ran, there's a mistake]

Such a voice was heard from the background

[Sorry I made such a scene, is this desk open right now?]

I had a smile floating on my face when I asked that to the receptionist [a, y, yes. Adventurer guild, arusutoromeria are you looking for a request.

The receptionist who was just trembling recovered quickly and put on a business smile.

[A?, no, I have a letter of introduction here I have come to request some work.]

So I passed the letter I got from Al over the desk.

[yes, is that a problem?]

[Even though you have such ability, please. Join the adventurers guild]

[no , well even if you say a thing like that]

[first please hear the explanation first]

[Ah then, ok please continue]

Even though the receptionist was pushing it onto me. I was still interested in the occupation of an adventurer.

So I will hear the explanation

I was then led into the back room by the receptionist

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter 20

I who came to the adventurers guild is having a talk in the back room.

[I am sarina of the adventurers guild astromelia branch, pleasure to make your acquaintance Mr. Kouya ]

Saying so, the receptionist introduced herself. I also took that time to observe her calmly. From underneath her long blond hair, a pointed ear peeped out. This girl is she...

[Aa, yes, from looking at my ears you probably thought I was an elf, and that is correct]

I think she noticed my glance

[Elf, it's my first time seeing one]

[The elves are definitely few in this neighborhood]

On this continent, it can be separated into four races. The human, Elf, Dwarf and the demons.

If it were to be put into order of population it would be Human, demon, dwarf and then Elf It is because of that I have not seen any elves in town, although I have not seen any demons either. I do not know the details well but the demons seem to live in the far eastern regions of the continent.

[Well then Mr. Kouya, shall we continue in the explanation of the adventurers?]

Sarina seems to talk frankly with everyone.

Adventurers seem to be a generic name for temp workers, they cover monster suppression, merchant guard, carpentry and even being the errand boy.

I somewhat think it's a job that you can't dream in, but there seems to be many people who will give preferential treatment to strong adventurers of high rank.

But the danger to your life also increases by rank.

[10,000 G is required to join the guild but in exchange you get an adventure card which can be used conveniently to deposit money and purchase goods at multiple places]

If a store registers with the commercial guild it also seems they can accept cash payments instead of dealing with large amounts of coin.

The adventurers guild seems to guarantee the security of the gold deposited, which is by all means a convenient thing.

Perhaps I might only register so I can obtain that card.

[How ever, if the card is ever lost 50,000G is required for reissue, so pay attention to the handling]

It may be my imagination, but this card seems to be bait to gather adventurers.

Well it is only 10,000G it seems advantageous to get such a convenient item.

The one point that pulled my attention was the ranks. The ranks were divided into five. In order from the bottom, novice, pawn, knight, bishop and then rook. Any adventurers just starting begin at novice rank.

In order to go up you need to pass a severe promotion test. In addition to that each rank is split into three phases ★1 ★2 ★3.

The phases are progressed by handling requests at the guild.

As for Sonburu of the depotowaru company, he was of the bishop ranking.

It seems it will be easy for me to go up to the bishop rank in terms of combat ability. As for the rest of the explanation it was just about common sense and was a bit boring.

[Now then, to begin the process of joining please fill out the necessary paperwork]

And with that sarina passed over the entry papers

Even though it was a lot of characters that I was not familiar with, through〈All language〉I was able to read it without pain.

I received the pen and fill in the necessary information in ink

Then I noticed something

[no no, even though I heard the explanation not long ago, can you expand on this part]

Dangerous.

I was in the natural flow, but I was almost cheated

[Tch, you should of just filled it in]

Sarina just clicked her tongue at me, despite her beautiful appearance, she is ugly on the inside [Ahem, is it that Mr. Kouya does not want the adventurers card, it is quite convenient to have]

Sarina explained, It becomes proof of status, especially at higher ranks [A well, I guess I will register for now]

I was defeated by the enthusiasm of sarina but, the card does certainly seem convenient .

The sum of 10,000G is not that much so there is no real loss if I do join.

And like that I became an adventurer

Adventurer registration 2

After I finished filling in the paper I passed it to sarina Fortunately it was a simple thing all it needed was name and present adress, so I quickly finished [... then there is no problem, the final step is the magic aptitude test.]

[I'm sorry, what is this magic test?]

[It measures the quantity of magical power, and gives it a numerical value it is said that priests usually are over 1000]

Well I do not know how strong a priest is, though I am a bit worried about my result.

[First is testing of attributes, fire, water, earth, wind, ice and thunder]

[please place your hand on orb]

There was a board with a magic circle in the center and in it was a sphere, slight larger than my hand.

And around it was six smaller orbs the size of marbles I covered the central orb with my hand as I was directed to The crystal ball began to shine and I sensed magic was being drained, then numbers appeared in the ball And all the surrounding orbs changed colours and also began to shine.

Magic continued to be absorbed and the digits began to clear up.

The sucking of magic eventually stopped and then the numbers on the orb came to the surface [this..]

Sarina seems to be uncomfortable

[please, what is the result]

The only thing that showed on the orb was many zeros in a line [please excuse me, there seems to be a problem with the magic tool]

Sarina then left the room with the crystal ball then returned with a magical tool that was somewhat larger than the previous [please hold your hand over this]

I repeated the same thing that I did previously .....

The result again was zeros in a line

[The amount of magic Mr. Kouya has is perhaps too large, for this tool, I am sorry]

Saying so sarina apologized

This result is probably because of my gift〈super magic〉

So there may be no way to measure my magic.

This is an ability given to a hero, so as expected it is quite strong.

[with that, what will happen to the adventurer registration?]

[Ahh, you don't need to worry about it, but the magic power column will just simply remain blank]

[then do you know anything of the elements?]

I asked that just to confirm my suspicions

[It says here, that you possess all the elements, that is quite a splendid achievement]

Sarina's face quickly changed to one of admiration [I have never seen someone who has aptitude in all elements, and even in rook class it is not that common]

I was going to ask more about all elements but decided not to [By the way, how strong is the head priest?]

Instead I threw a question sarina

[Well, usually a priest exceeds 1000 magical power, but that is only in one element. The strongest I know of has three elements]

Apparently, my all attributes is an extremely powerful thing umuu...

[Well, i'm sorry that I was not able to test your magic power here, but if you wish to check your quantity you can to the guild head office, they have a machine there that they use for testing head priests]

[where is the guild head office?]

[It is in the labyrinth city]

A labyrinth city?

A word that is a matter of concern came out [... though Mr. Kouya, why are you a swordsman if you have such high quality of magic?]

That reminds me there was such a thing on the registry form [a, well, I have been sword fighter for quite some time now, so I have gotten used to it]

[...That is truly a waste. If you were to be trained properly who wouldn't stop even at head priest level]

[is that so]

This has flown smoothly

Though I am slightly interest in the magic guild When I have some time I guess I will investigate it further [then , registration is complete, fare-well]

I then received the adventurer's card then head of the exit [.... it's different I have come here with a request!]

I didn't come here to become a adventurer

I wanted to get a bodyguard for fina

I had forgotten the original purpose

I'm delightful that no one noticed my failure

Blue rose 1

I had finished adventurer registration, and then returned to request a bodyguard for Fina [I'm sorry, but I had completely forgotten]

It is not a good thing to be angry, So i explained the request contents to her [... do you think there is anyone who would do it?]

[The on duty hours are long, with that the rates will be quite a large amount, but do you have a preferred rank]

Even if that is said, I do not know the strength of the ranks [What rank is usually put on such a job as this?]

[I would recommend someone at pawn rank, as someone of the novice rank is not able to accept a guard request due to regulation]

[well then, I guess I will go with someone of knight rank]

After that the details were talked about with sarina. Time, money, etc We ran into many problems during our conversation, but most of these were quickly resolved, but most were caused from my ignorance of common sense. But by the end I set up a request for the adventurers guild [..... then please take this]

Sarina then passed me a piece of paper

[when the quest is taken this paper will burn, and then you can come here to confirm it]

I thought it would be dangerous that it burns, but I was told that there is no chance of fire occurring because of that.

[It is good to make a request, but you should also think of taking a request as well]

[haha, I will do so when I have spare time]

Though Sarina wants me to work as an adventurer I have many things to do currently The day after the request was put out, the paper was wrapped in blue flame and then it collapsed Sarina said it was not hot, so it is called flames. I did touch it and that was true it was not hot at all [I have come because the paper burned]

[Aa, please wait Mr. Kouya]

Similar to yesterday sarina was in the reception bench When she noticed me she gave me a smile

[Please let me introduce you to the people who took the quest, this group here, the 'The Blue Rose']

Four women stood where Sarina pointed

Because it was for children, I said I would prefer woman [Though it is a team of young people, they have a promising future, and everyone is already at the knight rank]

They were 2 ranks above I who was novice rank

These people definitely have a promising future

There is no complaints if these are the people who are the guards [I am the leader, Cyan. my best regards]

The woman at the front said so and offered her hand She had a mild appearance and green hair. (may be blue) [I am Kouya, please take care of the children]

I took the hand of Cyan and greeted her

[it is fine to not take such a polite tone]

As cyan said so with a smile on her face I decided to take her up on those words [Well I want you to come meet the children, so we should leave for my home as soon as possible]

With the members of blue rose I went of to the outskirts of town towards the orphanage

Blue rose 2

[A, Mr. Kouya! Welcome back!]

Fina was the first one to notice me come back, and ran over with a joyful expression [this child...?]

The elf ranger of blue rose said such a thing with a confused face [This is Fina, my slave]

Though I do not think of her that way, the subordinate collar is proof that she is a slave Honestly I dislike it, I want to remove it [why is such a small child a slave]

Seki seems to dislike me for having a young slave and yelled at me [No... please don't be mean to Mr. Kouya]

Fina stepped forward in between me and seki, seemingly to protect me. How cute [a, actually I don't mind being Mr. Kouya's slave, he is kind to me]

Because of Fina's powerful display seki fell down to one knee [They seem to have their own circumstances, please leave it at the Seki]

One of the other members of Blue Rose, Rakuru put her hand on seki's shoulder and said so She is quite tall for a women and seems to be the tank of the party

She also carries a large shield on her back [I understand, I'm sorry Kouya]

[aa, I don't mind it particularly]

Afterwards we moved inside to a room in the orphanage [For the request, it is I want you to guard Fina. two times everyday, into town to the Fareno company]

[umm. Kouya, we are adventurers, we are not suited to mimicry of a merchant]

Though Cyan raised such a problem I quickly went to dismiss it [you do not need to worry about such a thing, Fina will be able to perform all the business, you only need to worry about being a guard]

[Is it fine for such a small child to do it though]

A worried look rose on sekis face again

[It's fine isn't it Fina?]

[YES! Please leave it to me]

Fina seems happy that I entrusted her with the work [yes I understand that request what was the other request?]

[Both me and Fina drink this everyday and I would like you to help me with verification of the effect]

I show the nutrition drink to everyone in blue rose [I have never seen such a drink is it a potion?]

A potion is medicine with a special effect made by using magical power in this world There seems to be various kinds including life and mana but I do not know the details well [Ah, well it's something like that]

[If it's for research, Then I will gladly participate!]

One of the members that had been quiet up to now, dizzy opened her mouth A black robe as well and raven-black hair, she was quite dark Though she had the looks of being quite quiet, it somehow was different [What kind of effect does it have, nee nee tell me.

[A, well so far we have only confirmed that it increases strength as we can only have one per day due to health reasons, but there may be more]

[Health reasons you say, is it safe]

Seki had a doubtful expression while looking at the drink [Ah well both me and fina have been having one per day for around one month and there has been no problems]

[and and, what is the extent of the effect after drinking for one month]

Dizzy pushed seki to the side and jumped forwards [Well fina please show it, Rakuru can you please be her partner?]

I propose an arm wrestling match between Fina and Rakuru [Are you sure? My weak point is self control, I may break her arm]

Between Fina and rakuru there is a large size diferance there is reason to hesitate

[It is all right, even if it breaks it's only temporary, so use all you power]

I have the ointment which appears to have some sort of magic effect I think because of that it's fine not to worry [well even if you say that, I still feel a bit bad about it]

Rakuru doesn't seem too comfortable with the match Well the other party is a small child such as Fina Though I do not know the strength of the knight rank, I do want to show them the effect of nutrition drink [Well then, if you can win against Fina I will pay you 10,000 G]

[... such confidence, Do you think I can't beat a child?]

The plan of baiting her in was a success

Rakuru has become motivated.

Rakuru, Fina has become strong because of the potion I want to see the range of the effect]

Dizzy pushed the back of Rakuru, while encouraging her [.... will it be fine though, even if I hurt Fina?]

[yes it's fine, But I won't be defeated!]

Fina was also hyped up it seems

[Then are you both ready to go?]

Rakuru and Fina sit at opposite sides of the table Two people, one adult and one child

It looks unpleasant, but it is not wrong

[Then, Start]

Both hands, looked like they were at full power [muu, this... ... ]

Rakuta had a face of astonishment

The arms that opposed each other pushed into each other hard [E, Rakuru. Are you serious]

Seki was doubtful it seems

[.....I am not cutting any corners]

Rakuru answered but it seems to be trembling [That can't be true]

To the serious expression of Rakuru, Seki was at a loss for words Looking at the other side, fina also had an intense stare The strength has been roughly measured

[Well, we should end it here as a tie, otherwise may end as mutual injury]

The two hand seperate

[lord Kouya] (now using Dono)

[Rakuru, this is the reward for the experiment]

I then passed over one saint silver coin

[I... Did not win, I cannot accept this]

[no no this is thanks for taking part in the experiment]

[Well If Kouya says so, it's only right to accept it]

Though Rakuru wanted to return the money, Cyan interceded [I'm supriised that such a small child can compete with Rakuru Seki seemed to be admiring Fina

[that so cool, nee Kouya, please teach me about this drink] (she uses Boku for this, manly way of saying I) Dizzy seems to be fascinated by it

[So everyone please cooperate with the experiment]

[Of course!, Everyone agrees right!?!]

Dizzy said while looking around at the other three of the party [Well there seems to be a massive advantage, so I don't see why not]

[I don't care, I am also interested in this medicine]

[I also have no problem]

All members have no problem it seems so all of Blue rose will participate

Effects of nutrition drink

The knight rank party, Blue rose has become the guards of Fina who now trades with the Fareno company alone. The guards are there to help but, Fina is a smart child. Even if they run into trouble they can contact me immediately, because I have given them a walkie talky [It is as Mr. Kouya said!]

Fina pulls the cart that is full of baggage, and quite cheerfully. Also the three oldest from the orphanage do so as well.

And around them are three from blue rose. Cyan, Rakuru and Seki surround it [Then, let's go]

When Fina came business doubled but now, there is four. The profit has increased greatly.

In addition, I hired the guards allowing me to start doing runs twice a day and with increased transaction value. Therefore the amount of money I get has increased without me working. I have gained a lot of free time from leaving the dealing with Fina. One thing I do is study the effect of the nutrition drink. After buying the orphanage, I began to give the three oldest of the orphanage the drink as well. The effect of strengthening was clearly verified.

On the other hand I felt no particular change.

Therefor I enlisted the help of the three eldest to see if the effect was just on fina or on all who drink it From I conclusion I gathered the effect was the same for all three people After several days the improvement was clear

Next I decide to test again.

This time on the older people of blue rose

[un un, the nutrition drink is amazing]

Dizzy looked very excited and started licking the drinks Among the members of blue rose she was the only one that is not a guard, but is helping me research She pushed the research forward with her enthusiasm

[un, afterall the effect is great even after one week]

[it is so, but how far does he effect go?]

The results we got was, the more that is drunk the larger of an effect it has Even if you stop drinking the effect continues.

But taking more than the amount on the package was prohibited, because the possibility of side effects was scary [Kouya, when the drink enters here the component is reinforced]

[hmm yes, there should be other ways to confirm this]

Then next is the verification of the effects of the different flavours Around here I left everything up to dizzy

With the use of a spreadsheet of the pc that I summoned, the data Sorting was done easily Though I was worried if anyone else could read what was on the PC, there is no problem if I give permission to the other party. If I do this the other party has no problem But then I was worried if the concept of spreadsheets was a problem, but that fear was for nothing Dizzy immediately understood it and came to master it surprisingly fast ... is she a genius

With everyones cooperation and dizzy working hard the research advanced well We found that the active ingredients were Taurine, Bromhexine, Indomethacin, Lysozyme and Chitosan.

The effects of each part were,Taurine strength, bromhexine toughness, and agility from Indomethacin Lysozyme increased magic power, while chitosan increased magic resistance Dizzy was not able to help with the latter two because she did not understand them I did not actually know there was an effect on magic by the drink it was dizzy who noticed it [the amount that magic goes up each day is amazing even if it is only one drink a day]

Dizzy who was worried about her own magic shortage was pleased with the discovery Based on the research we began to prescribe to specific needs of people.

Balanced drinks were given to Fina and seki

To cyan and Lloyd was taurine and indomethacin, to increase combat ability To tiana and Rakuru was bromhexine and chitosan to improve defensive ability And snow and dizzy, the two with magic talent were given lysozyme Noting the side effect, I tracked everyone progress carefully I finally found the effect of the drink on myself

It was because of my gifts that I didn't notice the difference, It just required more time.

[after all this is a different world]

The drink that was normal and common in Japan had a game like reinforcement effect This world is much different than my old one and has different physical laws as well.

This takes place before prologue

My name is Minami Kouya, I am a highschool student and will be going to a nearby national university this coming spring I was currently free, walking in the warm sunlight Then I realised that I was surrounded by nothing There was only a grey hued sky stretched out [he hello, minamiya kouya right?]

Then I heard a voice behind my back

I answered calmly as I could even though my heart was beating hard [Yes , that is me, have we met somewhere]

[no, today is the first time we meet]

In front of me was a beautiful girls with long green(or blue) hair She had two different eye colours, one red and one black, it made her seem mysterious [wh, what happened?]

I unintentionally started staring

The girl asked so with a frightened look [Aah, No, I'm sorry I didn't mean to be unpleasant Though this girl seems to be very timid

[wi, will you go to another world?]

[Huh?]

[S,SORRY!]

I did not mean to scare her, why did she apologise so quickly [I thought you asked If I would go to another world]

[y yes that is right]

[I don't understand it, can you please explain it in detail]

In order to not frighten her again I asked slowly [There is another world that is much unlike yours]

There was a sudden change in the girl, she began to say all her world fluently.

[I am the goddess stellazion, Please will you transmigrate to another world amupatori, and then defeat the demon lord and a hero]

The timid looking girl from before has completely disappeared and has been replaced with a confident one I uncontrollably swallowed

[please wait, another world, A goddess, hero , demonlord is this what you said to me, I don't understand at all]

I forgot to stay calm and shouted unintentionally [e, eee... yes, that is right, and I am a goddess]

Again the girl was replace, this time the confidence disappeared It was all an act just before.

[a, well Ms. Stellazion can you please explain this otherworld]

[y yes , I will]

Her unsteady tone has returned

This other world, amuatori is totally different from earth it seems But it is like earth that there is many people living there [Kouya san. The country stella zion in the west sacred continent wants to summon a hero in order to save them from the rushieria empire]

[The holy country of stella zion? What up with the name?]

[Ahh, well it is the country that worships me as their goddess, so they named it after me]

[Well shouldn't they rely on their own strength, instead of depending on you?]

This is a hard story to believe, another world? And am I supposed to throw away everything I have?

I do not see anything That I gain from this But I should assume her words to be true [Even though I am called god I cannot leave here]

[I would think a god would be omnipotent and able to do what they want]

[Well then you will be summoned as a Hero!]

Stella had a smile, like a flower that began to bloom [no, I refuse]

[Eeeee!?, Why?]

[well, why would I help people of some country which I do not know about, why would i not refuse]

[b but then the religion of stellazion will fall, and the country will be ruined]

Stella had a sorrowful expression, it also made me sad [... are these people that important?]

[...? yes, it is because that they will all be ruined because of my elder siser]

He? An answer that was unexpected was given The goddess was full of emotion

[This place is quite important to you?]

[yes, actualy—]

The reason the stella talked about were indeed silly The country resheria was the north side of the holy lands of stella zion, and it had stella older sister supporting it]

I hear that the older sister inadvertently summoned three heros which ended up invading using their power and blessings As such the holy lands are in danger because of that.

Then I was going to be summoned as a hero in order to oppose them Apparently these three heroes and rusheria is the demonlord that I need to defeat It is just two sisters fighting a proxy war To call in help, I do not like it

[ I still stay with my original answer]

[No really?, I can't return you to your world because of a contract with minamiya biyakuya your grandfather. And there is also that you have also died. In fact a new body has already been made for you]

[wha, what is that about my grandfather?]

The name of an unexpected person came out

internet 26

I did not know where I was and the name of an unexpected man came out The name midnight sun of the south, imperial prince, minamiya byakuya my grandfather, master of the military arts Honestly I did not like grandfather

And there are many questions unanswered

He had many enemies, and there were multiple times where he was attacked by assassins many times we were involved The art of the south prince, nagakotakejustu the combat style of his, was drilled into me and because of that I lost part of my youth And things like that goes on and on

But he was also the biggest dog lover there is, That I think was his only good part But it seemed like nothing could kill him, but he died two years ago to a assassin's bullet I didn't think he would lose to a bullet but there was no doubt because I saw the body.

Though the amount of grief was not none, the feeling of freedom was greater.

I would not be human if I wasn't sad

From then on I drove him into the corner of my head and did not inquire anymore untill now [I was going to take midnight sun when he died, but we talked for a while and then decided the contract would be change, and I would take you when you became 18 years of age]

[haa, what is that?]

My terrible grandfather did such a selfish thing [then Kouya you have two choices, one you can become a hero, or you can let your soul rot away]

The face of stella had an unpleasant look

In my opinion there is only one choice I could take [... rotting away would be bad, but no]

[it is it not?, well then I will prepare transmigration, then... please wait a moment..... What is this?...

I seemed to have been taken lightly]

She seemed to think I would go forwards with trasmigration [I said I will not go]

[Eh but the you will rot away and there will be nothing]

[I cannot return to japan, there is no point]

Speaking clearly I am only 18 years only

But grandfather is the main reason

At last I had obtained a peaceful day, but there will be no free time if I go to another world And I prefer to not go along with grandfathers plan It would be better If I just die

I felt slight desperation thoug

[but if you become a hero you will be give a convenient ability Given and will be able to live life easier]

[A convenient ability... what is that?]

I know I was being baited, but it was still interesting]

[Ah well then how about < super-magic >with that you can use all the magic you want!]

[is that so, how is such a thing as magic possible?]

[It is attractive, how about another?]

[A well]

I don't want to give in if it's only one ability.

[well, If I give you more will you transmigrate then?]

Rotting away is still a possibility but getting the gifts from stella may be good aswell With that I may be able to finish my commitment quickly Though that would be going along with grandfather which I do not particularly like [your really unreasonable how about < All language><memory retention>as well as....]

[is that it?, then the answer is to rot]

I only did this as I thought it would let me get more leverage, but I don't have as much confidence anymore [but, the hero summoning has already begun, then with that my country is as good as ruined]

I did not seem to get the answer I was wanting, It is quite annoying [If it's so important, why not accept my terms]

[uuu, understood, I will give you everything]

Though I was worried, it is not longer necessary, but do I really want to fight stellas older sister [then please sign this document with your blood]

Then Stella handed me a knife and paper

Though I should trust god's words, I still read the contract carefully [hmm, what is with this sentence here?]

There was only one sentence {I will acknowledge every condition goddess stella puts out}

It was good to not be careless

The goddess is strangely wicked

[this time,I will go]

[y yes , sorry]

I then lightly piece under my fingernail of my ring finger and the pressed my thumb against the paper Then, a magic formation appeared at my feet

Apparently I will be sent to another world immediately [the contract is complete, then please save the holy country, Hero]

A mysterious smile floated on her face while she said so On the other hand I returned a smile as well [well I have no intention of being a hero, sorry for the misunderstanding The contract to save her country did not exist Because perhaps there was a mistake in the formation The goddess' failure was useful for me

[wa, missing sentences on the contract]

I heard such words from the goddess while I was in the middle of transferring to another world

Let's barbecue

Every day for awhile has been passing by without trouble, the kids from the orphanage are in good health as well There isn't any dissatisfaction, but it could be better Our meals are mostly covered from net mail order I have been depending greatly on canned food in particular There is a large variety of canned food

Cooked vegetables, curry and fruit as well are all abundant [wow, this is the first time I have had fish]

[this, is delicious, and seriously sweet]

The response from the children was also great All the canned food is well seasoned and is also popular The food here is generally bland as seasoning is thin But that did not last very long

[I, want to eat something warm... ... ]

Such things began to rise up between the children [Don't be so ungrateful!. I am very sorry Mr.Kouya]

Liz apologized, but I think it's reasonable the kids want such a thing Though to be honest all I have done is cut corners I then pass out cup noodle

It is a warm meal that can be prepared with the equipment we have at the orphanage, though it does not include any health benefits To counter, I added vegetables

[waa, Mr kouya, this is great, the soup is delicious!]

Though all the children were pleased with the cup noodle, fina was pleased most I think The miso flavor seems to be a favourite

Even while I was living at the inn, I still ate warm food, like when I went to a stall.

I seemed to somehow endure it

I'm sorry, fina

As the nutrients from cup ramen seems to be slightly off balance I decided I would eat both them and the canned goods to balance it out again Though recently the meals at the orphanage were not that good, due to leaving work to Fina I have begun to crave things Preparing meals by hand is the best, but unfortunately the kitchen in the orphanage is destroyed, so we are unable to use it It was probably because of the depotowaru thugs I should of given those idiots a bigger beating when I had the chance Though it's no use regretting the past

There is something more important than that I decide I want to barbecue

Luckily the land around the orphanage is uselessly wide A space for everyone to eat together will be found quite easily I opened the net mail order site, and ordered all the tools I needed one after the other [Mr. Kouya, what are you doing this time?]

Fina seemed to wondering about the large amount of cardboard boxes that have begun piling up [It's a barbecue]

[A babekyu?] (first was katakana, second was hiragana) She had a face that seemed she did not understand at all [it uses charcoal to cook meat in the outdoors]

By the way, Though I found this on the net, the original definition of a barbecue, seemed to refer to roasting meat, and the act of eating it Here in another world, it might have a diferent meaning [Eating meat like that, I look forward to it a lot!]

Fina happily jumped around, and here twintails bounced with her I also look forward to it

The same story reached the child and liz

[you are always helping us, is that ok?]

Liz seemed to be rather conservative, but there is no problem because the children seem to be pleased I also called out to the members of blue rose [It seems nice, so I guess I shall accept your kind offer]

[Great, It's meat, meat!]

Everyone of blue rose seems happy to come as well [dizzy, how about you come as well?]

My chest was hit, I was not expecting that, It also lasted until cyan managed to separate it [... though I am glad for the invitation, I am quite busy right now, But the fact you invited me makes me happy]

Al said so, he also looks quite tired

With the dealings left to fina I have not seen his face for quite some time and the company seems to be getting quite busy I did not listen to the full details but it seems something is going down in the capital Though I sympathized for a moment, it probably has nothing to do with me I immediately forget about it and return to preparation for the barbecue [Kouya, please let this child help as well Behind liz was a child around 10 years old I was excited about this, but it's fine If I were to get some help I still want the orphanage to be independent in some time I need a concrete plan for this

[aa, you saved me, thank you]

I bend down to match my line of vision and said so with a smile [Yes!, Leave it to me!]

An energetic answer

The preparations advanced with the help of the children

Barbecue 2

Four barbecues were set up at the orphanage Because Chairs would be hard to get rid of, I just placed a blue tarp on the ground.

Because today was a rest day from working with the fareno company Fina and the others were able to join as well Concerning the food though, there is a problem of preserving it for the future I took out my smart phone and began ordering the ingredients in the ord I guessed before hand.

The main meat was various cuts of beef.

My favourite meal of course was also included But the children's nourishment was also considered, so I also prepared plenty of vegetables The many strange things caught their attention easily The prawns, and other seafood in particular though, You can't find this kind of food this far from the ocean Drinks were also prepared

The processing of the ingredients was left to Fina, While I faced the preparation of the stove I assembled it quite some time ago, but I just starting lighting the flames [Please let us help as well]

Everyone of blue rose came as well.

[I wasn't expecting you here at this time]

Dealings were off today

Because of that, guard duty is of course off as well [we came for the delicious food, but please do let us help]

[umu, so you just came for the free food]

Well, there is too much food just us so I guess it is fine [Well, then please let me accept that offer]

[Yes. please leave it to me]

[Then, lizzy are you able to light this]

[Hoi Hoi, lamplight, flame torch]

From the tips of dizzy's fingers a small flame dances The flame moves from her fingers into the charcoal With this fire the barbecue has started Afterall magic is convenient

With the help of the people of blue rose the barbecue finished without a problem.

[To celebrate the rebuilding of the orphanage I want to hold this barbecue party, because there is plenty of food you do not need to hold back]

I just thought of that reason

However, I only just thought I having a reason would improve the mood and make it more of a party Thus the barbecue party in another world started As it would be hard for me to manage every single barbecue, I left some people in charge of it.

It was fina And the elder group.

I explained the way of barbecue to them before hand, So I asked them to help cook [Wow, it's meat!]

[Oi, don't make so much noise]

When I showed the children the meat, there were many shouts of joy [Calm down. Well there is a lot of meat]]

A fragrant smell from the cooking meat wrapped everyone in the area The children all faced the plate with the sauce [Please be patient, the meat will be done soon]

I put meat into the plate from the smallest child up [is this mine?]

[of course please move along, there are many waiting]

[Tasty]

[This is, SO GOOD!]

From the children many voices of pleasure came out It was worth splurging and getting the high quality meat [This meat is really delicious, so tender, and the sauce as well, the sweetness and the spice mixes so well to harmonize and brings out the taste of the meat]

This was said by Rakuru while stuffing her face with food [ I agree with rakuru,Kouya this food is great]

[yes, yes ... OI]

The beef that was just cooked was thrown onto Rakuru's plate [muu. What about me Kouya]

Dizzy Said so while pouting

[Is that so]

Is it imaginary? though I should concentrate on cooking right now though I divided the ingredients to be cooked in sequence while thinking about When I look beside me I see Fina and the older kids working hard However, there is a large number of people here so I don't think they hae [Kouya ... have you eaten yet, do you want to swap?]

I wasn't the only one to notice this, dizzy proposed this [no, you are a guest you should just relax]

[You don't need to be so reserved.Is this not the relationship we have]

What relation, I tsukkomi in my head, but coldly declining goodwill like that is bad, So I guess I will accep [after I have Eaten I will swap with the children]

Rakuru said so towards fina

Beside her were cyan and seki, with that the people cooking was alternated Thanks to everyone in blue rose, truly [Dizzy, please cook this]

Saying this as I pass over horumon

[what is this?]

[It's horumon, the entrails]

[Whaa?, you can eat this?]

What, It's my favourite!

Though she was complaining about it, dizzy still cooked the horumon [.....]

The silence has gotten bitter

But every time I bite down my mouth gets filled with deliciousness [aaaa, It is the best]

I put the horumon in my mouth one after the other It is supreme bliss

[..... is it really tasty?]

Dizzy seeing my appearance has shown interest in the horumon [Aa, it's very delicious]

It was actually easy to convince you to try some [... It has a strange texture, but it has a good taste]

The greatness of horumon has been spread Then I noticed

I saw fina, she looked sad, Idly standing]

[Is something wrong fina, have you eaten?]

[ye,yes!]

I also pass some horumon to fina, just like I did to dizzy It seemed to be the correct action

[muuuu.....]

[What is it dizzy?]

[maybe you're just naturally like his]

[Huh, I don't really know what you're talking about]

What was that about?

Did I do something strange?

With such a feeling this peaceful time passed With that, me and dina saw off everyone from blue rose who had helped us [I had a fun time, It would be great if you invite us next time you do something like this]

Cyan came forward and bowed

[no, it was all thanks to you, you helped greatly today. You really saved us]

They offered to help tidy up but since they are guests I firmly denied it [It was a really fun time, To eat such delicious things. The fish also was great]

[For me it was the meat, even a high ranking adventurer would not eat such things so often]

[For me as well it is the meat]

The fish seemed to be cyans favourite but the meat was Rakurus and Dizzy's [The vegetables were quite good, it's been quite a long time since I have eaten fresh vegetables]

Seki, seems to have eaten only the vegetables Elves are truly vegetable lovers

[It was good everyone could enjoy and I look forward to talking to you tomorrow with the guard duty]

[KOUYA! What about me!]

[aa, dizzy I also look forward to working with you on the research]

[un! See you later]

After I had bidden farewell to everyone I returned to putting things back into order

Electric appliances

When I left trading to finally I gained plenty of spare time, I spent that on research of the nutrition drink. But, maybe it's time to introduce some electricity to the orphanage. Many of the convenient products in Japan require electricity. Fortunately, the PC and smart phone that are created through the use of a gift don't require electricity; instead, use magic. But there are still many things I want.

I want things like rice cookers, lights, and a stove.

However, this is another world, and the technology levels are different. Excluding the development of magic, it is at a level around the middle ages. Naturally, electricity hasn't been discovered, so it is hard to get such convenient things. I didn't know until I checked, but generators are common on net mail order sites too. Because there is not much use for such a thing in Japan, I was quite surprised that such a thing was sold. Though it is quite strange, the price ranges from 50,000 yen at the cheapest and three million at the other end of the scale.

Honestly, I was a bit worried because I did not understand the difference, so I just bought one for 500,000.

Though there was a considerable selection, I decided it was best to choose one that will not damage my pockets too much in the future [Kouya? This is?]

Dizzy had a strange face; it seems she was interested in it.

[well... it's a device to create small thunder, I guess...]

It is quite a hard thing to explain.

[thunder? I do not have any aptitude for that attribute so I don't know much about it, what do you use such a thing for?]

[Well, it's something that is quite hard to explain, It will be easier If I just show you]

[okay]

After many trials I got it to run and It was able to run a small electric heater after I had consulted with many manuals online about it It could have come at a better time because it is quite cold at night Because blankets had been distributed there is no chance of freezing but as there is many small children it would be better to be warmer [Waa, what is this, it's so warm]

[It was very cold, having this makes me happy]

According the that the children are impressed with the electric heater When I saw such a pure smile I wanted to work even harder [Mr. Kouya, to give us such a magic tool must be expensive, Thank you very much]

Liz seems to have mistaken it for a magic tool

Though to someone who doesn't know how it works, an electric heater and magic tool are no different Well, I also do not know how magic tools work either

Because no problem occurred with the introduction of the heater I bought more and so the amount of appliances increased quickly As a result, the orphanage has now got plenty of products that should not exist in this civilization level At this time I also explained the usage of the heaters because it could be dangerous otherwise I also learned that most of the children have not received proper education Because of compulsory education in japan, the literacy rate is near 100%

But right now is like the middle ages, there is no compulsory education, neither a proper educational institution The literacy rate is extremely low

Especially in the children that are left at the orphanage So to my plan of the orphan home reform, education will be added ◆

After I introduced the electric appliances to the orphanage, I began the repair of the kitchen Because it was random, I wanted to straighten out the environment so everyone is able to eat warm meals every day Though we were able to eat warm meals with the barbecue it is impossible to do it like that every day

The coal range was removed and replaced with an electric stove and a rice cooker, And also a counter space was purchased as well. Cooking utensils also, pots and pans were also collected. And for the preservation of ingredients I bought a refrigerator, it will also decrease some of my troubles. It was quite time consuming to be buying food for the net mail order site constantly. I also installed a kitchen sink, with that convenience has been improved. I was actually surprised you could order such a thing online [Mr kouya, see you later!]

[Take care!]

As usual I saw Fina off to do dealings with the Faren Company, and then began preparation for lunch. I used the repaired kitchen as making a proper meal would be quite easy [Lizuria, is it possible to borrow some children to help with cooking?]

Because making a meal for 30 people is a bit tough on one person [Of course, but shouldn't I be the one to help]

[No, Lizuria should be looking after the small children, even if the child is just 10 years old they would be a great help to me]

With that seven children were gathered around me

It was children who helped with the barbecue

If they are at this age it would be easy to let them cook for themselves if I properly teach them. If these children alone are not enough, Then I will be in trouble.

[Don't worry! Because I will do my best!]

The girl named Rita seems to be the leader, she also seems to be energetic at all times [un. Thank You everyone]

After instruction for preparing food was given I began working on a bathroom. I decided to remodel a room next to the kitchen

Perhaps when there was more people here it was used as a second cooking space [water formation, aqua create]

I installed the bath basin and then created the water using magic that I was taught by dizzy I was taught magic little by little and so far it has been a great help However because of〈super magic〉the control is quite hard, If i were to lose concentration I would instantly flood to room To bring the water to the boil I used flame magic around the surface [lamp light, flame torch]

This is also magic that Dizzy taught me

Usually magic of higher power would be needed to boil water but for me this is enough I also have to control this carefully otherwise I would end up in a dangerous situation It requires a lot of time to heat up the bath which is a problem, But there are also children that have magic potential, it would be best to raise those children to be able to use magic Well thinking about such troublesome things was postponed and replaced with soaking in the bath tub

investigation

Because of the introduction of electricity I gained a lot of free time, so far it has been spent on researching on the internet The topic of the investigation is the net mail order site mitsurin In particular it is the service only available to members, the immediate delivery which is strange for many reasons Previously there was no time on my schedule for such a thing but now it has become possible, so I can sit down and spend some time on it I open the site on my smart phone, though it is quite hard to use with only one hand, as it involves lots of word input Within mitsurin [misuriru] is the place where the food and drink is sold which revolves around using words to search I tried using many different retrieval words but the results did not change It is obviously strange

After I put aside the member side of misuriru, I steered the investigation toward the precious metal site mystery plaza From that site a purchase box is sent instantly and is also strange any way you look at it From an index site I searched mystery plaza I then went to the first option on the retrieval list Except for [mystery] and [plaza] no other results could be found It must be because misuriru of mitsurin and the mystery plaza do not exist in the internet When I tested it again on the pc the result did not change again I think it is because of〈cyber net internet connection〉, It does have a suspicious name What kind of things is it hiding I wonder There is no process to connect to the internet it is mostly just using the power and then there is no further verification I had a bright idea and peaked into a massive anonymous bulletin board Then I decided to ask the residents something as a trial ◆

Because of the province it arrives the same day with platinum I find i considerably useful

As a feature of the exclusive browser I used myself as a name From this it is quite easy to see

Was writing in a thread like this a bad idea However i did manage to find that other members of misuriu do not exist I was able to gather lots of information Additionally something that I have to pay attention to also arose It is the delivery company

Mitsuri is free mail order site, the delivery trader must exist separately Sanding luggage to another world is not normal

I open up the purchase history page, there might just be a clue hidden there It was on the page like this

{Delivery trader: shiroinunahato}

This is the first time I have heard of this company I thought it would have a name of some famous carrying company like like a cheap knock off but it didn't I checked the entire list incase there was a mistake but the company is the same every time

I was doubtful of the company [shiroinunahato] so I searched for it on the net I got the result I expected, the company did not exist This mysterious trader and my grandfather might be related The delivery is of course linked with magic, there is no doubt with that fact And the only one related with magic in my original world is my grandfather A relationship between those two was the first this that came to my mind However I did not want to admit it, I only wanted to deny the answer There is uncertainty, did my grandfather actually die?

It also needs to be confirmed if magic is a real thing in my original world Even my non standard grandfather did not seem to be able to do it Afterall I have not understood it, more investigation seems to be needed However these things have already become common in my otherworld life It is not an exaggeration to say that I rely on the net mail order site Though to the current date I have not had any problems with it

Orphanage rebuilding plan

A long time after the purchase the original purpose is back

What is the purpose? Rebuilding the orphanage The structure of the building was simple so I was easy to repair However an amateur cannot do it all, it was clear that I needed to hire a professional [When the orphanage is rebuilt, what do you want?]

I ask the children so

[Ah... this is enough I think, it's not cold and the futons are fluffy Well the children's desires don't seem to much Though I kinda feel dissatisfaction with the current conditions However I will not change this policy

[kouya thank you for everything you've done]

[no well, I really only brought this house because I wanted to build it, I didn't know you were here in the first place]

It is just like that

Afterall this building is not up to the modern japanese standards It seems like it is very fragile and will collapse any time.

At first I was going to request some workers from the town Because I was a high school student, so my knowledge of construction is zero Honestly I do not have the faintest idea of what workmen did in my previous world Then I thought

What if I request for a company to do drawings So I mailed the request to some small design office To begin with only half of them did reply, but after I said it was in another world the other half stopped responding as well Afterwards I looked back and it did seem like an unlikely story But I cannot do the blueprint drawing myself, as I have absolutely no experience in such things I would certainly mess it up

Though I did keep sending it to offices I never got a good answer At that time I started to give up

But then I sent one mail to burannui design office And they replied

{As I am indebted to the south imperial prince of midnight sun, your grandfather. I would like to cooperate with your request}

Such a thing happened just after I found a relation between my grandfather and the mail order sites Saying he is acquainted with my grandfather seems like a half hearted attempt However since this is the only chance I will get I will take it As a result, I was not able to hide my surprise Until now I did not know that that thing existed in this world It was not just emails sent through the internet, it was different I was able to speak between worlds using a telephone [nice to meet you,Naguu Nijiyoru Right?] (south shrine/imperial prince rainbow night) Having heard it from a new headset I just ordered of mitsurin, I heard the voice of a man in a calm tone [A, yes that's right, Mr. Saito]

[It seems it is fine to talk over the phone, so I'll get straight to the point]

[So, Mr.Saito, why did you know I was in another world?]

[that is a secret]

It is said flatly

[W,well then I will change the question, what was your relationship with my grandfather]

[that is also secret]

This is utterly helpless

Even for another quest I got the same answer [Is that all the questions, then should we move on?]

I give up finding out about him

I continue with saitou, and drew the orphanage according to what was needed, with the proper guidance that is [Indeed, I have understood roughly. I have taken a case before, similar to this one. Well then, I can acquire the materials on this side, but you will be charged for this]

The words that came out of saito's mouth struck me [Perhaps you can contact the Shiroinunahato delivery company?]

[yes, the materials will be sent through that]

[This company, is it good?]

[No it's not]

After all it's bad?

Though the image of it has become clearer.

Let's assume that I know about it now

[And then? Are you okay with the materials being procured here?]

[I hope so, by all means]

I instantly accepted

I do not know about the quality of materials in the diggerernt world, but i do know that modern japanese materials are good and sturdy Also in another world it is not just materials but also the material processing The width of materials that can be used is limited by the processing technology. So the design is needed to be matched with the technology However if the materials are secured from japan the limits are raised greatly and enables a wider range of designs to be used [Then, What kind of building are you looking for? Please just describe a simple design.

Now is time for the actual building

I talk about the image in my brain

Even though I did not have a clear image myself, saitou patiently took in all the information I gave to him [Well then I understand what you want, should I send through my copy so we can run through the details together]

[yes that would be best]

[it has ground information and construction place on it, if there is anything you don't understand just ask me, it also has the building that was described]

With such a thing our first meeting ended

Honestly I am thinking that construction of this building is a serious thing
However saitou seems to be good and this kind of thing Gradually the orphanage rebuilding program is coming together

internet 32

For the orphanage rebuilding I have been consulting with Mr saito regularly. The food for the children is always prepared and the bath is heated when it's needed Fina and all the children spent their day happily, but just watching this is enough for me But something disturbed this happy place

It was a normal early afternoon, nothing was different Then I heard the loud sounds of a bell in the distance They were very loud as I could hear it from the edge of town at the orphanage [... what is that?]

When I looked at lizuria, she had a worried look.

[What could this be?]

The sound hasn't even finished ringing yet

I then had to stop working and stand up to see for myself [Liz can you please check that all the children are here please]

[I understand, but please take care of yourself as well]

I went to where the bell was ringing out from

Some reason the origin of the sound was the adventurers guild When I arrived at the plaza outside the building, there was already a large crowd forming [What happened?]

I asked a man who was nearby

[You don't know? The forest is producing an abnormal amount of monsters recently. The outbreak seems to be coming towards the town]

The forest outside Alstromeria is the main area where monsters reign. The monster area produces monsters, and if you let it go unattended too long the monsters will overflow ..... However, it is the job of adventurers to protect the town. The adventurers perform regular thinning of these monsters, but to get into the situation [How did this happen?]

[Well it's not just that]

Before I could get an answer from the person I asked, Salina answered. People from the staff seemed to be gathered at the back. [Sorry, adventures for the abrupt calling, but it is necessary. It is a great emergency.]

They then started to talk about the current conditions.

The report was that the amount of monsters is increasing at an abnormal rate. The story is heard, but the real thing is still ahead of us. With that, we left the guild to the forest to confirm the outbreak and a possible unique monster. A unique monster is a variation and is much more powerful than a regular monster. Additionally, it is common for it to act as a leader when they attack towns and villages. Because of the unique monster appearance, there has been an increase in the number of wolf-type monsters with a black body, a shadow wolf. With the large increase in shadow wolves, the leader seems to be trying to invade the town. At this stage, I know what is happening. So I slip off quietly to head back to the orphanage. [It looks like the guild is taking this quite seriously. They decided to call all the adventurers in the town in order to deal with the danger. It is a compulsory request. Adventurer membership will be revoked if it is refused. Then naturally the adventurers' card is seized as well.]

To that warning, of course I could not leave.

According to Salina, the compulsory request has not been used in the past 20 years.

But I was swindled!

Though I don't care about the membership, it would be terrible if I lose the card. It is a great convenience in the large transactions with Fareno Company. But I know salina had no intention to deceive me

Even in this situation I decided to behave like an adult Afterall I stopped my foot and returned

[The shadow wolf, subjugation will be for those of rook rank]

In this town there should be three teams of rook rank [A questoin]

[Yes, what is it areku]

If i'm not mistaken areku is the leader of sword at dawn party Even in this atmosphere he has a dignified air

[It is probably good that we defeat the shadow wolf, but what about all that block the way, ten of us surely not enough]

Apparently there doesn't seem to be much confidence in defeating the shadow wolf Well there are very little of rook rank in this town

Well it is not a lie

[Do not worry because the knights order will be handling that]

The knights order? If I remember right they are under employ of the local lord Each of them is individually strong, not just strong as a group. Most are of adventurer rank of bishop or higher In addition to that they all have intense military training, so the reputation is high\

But they are not cheap, they are not satisfied with cheap things. But they will be reliable with payment [Then everyone of rook rank please join in on the strategy meeting. The request for the remain people will be done now]

After that the role of those below bishop is talked about by salina It was decided that half will cover the flanks of the shadow wolf subjugation team. While the other half will defend alstroemeria As I am of the novice rank I am arranged behind the defence line I went to the battlefield unwillingly, it is quite a trumblesome thing

internet 33

Recently there has been a sudden increase of monster growth in the forest outside alstroemeria, with that we sent out a group to subjugate the unique monster Shadow Wolf I was watching the front line from far behind at the south gate Since I am not of a high rank in the guild I was not given an important role instead I am sitting at the back of the forces Supporting the fighters is my job

I could probably help immensely with my cheats, but there is no motivation to do so [Oi, the enemies are coming!]

After a short time the monsters began arriving

The large body of shadow wolf was not found in the crowd, but there is still a large amount, though the amount of adventurers is more Is this alright?

The fight appeared to be someone else's problem so my fears seem to be imaginary The large amount of adventurers began kicking around the crowd of monsters In the center was everyone of blue rose

When I hired them they were very close to bishop rank. All of them ranked up a few days ago Their power was greatly supplemented with the nutrition drink. And they seem to have gained strength not inferior to that of rook rank The battle was no where near me, but the scene in front of me gradually grew dark

Because the number of demons did not decrease at all Even though a large amount have been slain.

The number of trophy items from the wolves is strangely little though But between the monsters, the bird type, the animal type all the way to the dragon type there is a common feature When it is pierced the corpse doesn't remain, it just drops an item If I were to paraphrase it

The corpse doesn't remain, but the item doesn't drop either What is happening here?

It has been a long time since the subjugation team left Though I may be able to report on the results soon

While thinking about that a change happened in the defensive line

[has the subjugation team not returned yet]

[Gustav, are you alright?!]

[damn, to this degree?...]

in the middle of the battle there are many who are raising shouts, while the defence is being pushed back If this keeps happening for hours, fatigue will play a large role as it will grow overtime The injured people is also increasing, the back is becoming quite busy Helping this people is important after all

Because I was worried about the ending of this fight I decided to use〈1000 village grasp〉Which I got from the goddess With this gift I can investigate things in a big range, It can be used for many things like temperature and magic In addition to that I can use it like a camera to see far off places However, with the activation area there is a problem In my present state I am unable to use any of my gifts Maybe you could say I could not handle it

It is because of the gift〈 super-magic 〉

This gift increases the power of my magic, but it is to such a huge amount that it is hard to control, The control of the output of magic is something every magician trains in.

For instance a spiritual guide has the magic of 1000. Though he would practice without of 100 magic. And would be quite easy, but if they had 100,000 magic and tried to release 100 it would end up releasing 200.

For me though, the gift of 〈magic conservation〉also added to the trouble This gift though convenient that can move magic delicately, it makins control of magic harder Currently it is almost impossible for me to control any magic, so any gift that uses magic is out of the question And 〈 1000 village grasp 〉is a gift that uses magic However, It is quite urgent to find the status of the shadow wolf subjugation team.

So I slipped away from the battle field and hid in the shadows [〈1000 village grasp〉]]

The moment I started the magic, I got a strong pain in my head [ku, where? ..... I found it]

While I endured the pain I found the shadow wolf's whereabouts Instantly it's appearance is projected into my head [This]

I saw the figures of the rook rank adventurers surrounding the black wolf However, it seems that they can't finish it off

The reason is clear

There are monsters crawling out from it's shadow

The course is blocked by those guys so the adventurers cannot finish it [But such an ability was not in the report of the reconnaissance.

Not knowing about such a game changing ability will make the fight hard, but it does not make it impossible At the same time the reason for the monsters surging out is also revealed Though the knight core is also fighting strong, but a number of them has fallen due to the long defence Even with this the number of monsters storming the town does not slow I watch the state of the battle enduring the pain, though it has become better [though it is troublesome, can you do something about it]

I decided I would take down the shadow wolf myse

I released〈1000 village grasp〉, from there I glanced at the battle field and number the injured people has increased greatly From when I left through the door I saw many who were injured and may die very soon [I did not intend to bring it out yet but...]

I used my smartphone and connected to the store

I then ordered the ointment in a large quantity, these are the things I previously used in the treatment of fina It might be useful for the treatment of injured people I also ordered a mask and sunglasses for a disguise and my true face was hidden [Oi, use this on the injured people, it is magic medicine it works very well I jumped out of shade and shoved the box of ointment to the adventurer closest to me, then used my magic immediately [Floating, levitation]

My body slowly moved into the sky

Wind and dark, a compound magic between those two attributes I shake unsteadily probably because I do not have much control of the magic, but I cannot mind it now I turn my eyes towards those at the back of the enemy forces If I lessen the numbers back here perhaps it will help those at the front I thrust out my hand and released magic from it

[Burn it down! Flame torrent, burning stream]

From my right hand a whirlpool of flame was shot out The magic that was formerly used against me in used again However, the power was quite diferent

Where the whirlpool met the group of monsters a pool of magma gathered Naturally the monsters in the area were reduced to ashes [I thought this was going to be easy, but]

Of course the target was far away from all of my allies so they did not get injured by it Still it became good support

[Aa! What happened! Ko– mugyuu]

Dizzy noticed me, as well as cyan who was going to yell out to me but was stopped Even though I had the mask and sunglasses were able to hide my face, the magic leaking from me outed me out as a high level magician, it was quite easy for dizzy to notice me Though it would also be common sense not to call out to people you know when they are trying to hide their face I would like to expect my gratitude for stopping cyan I also feel the eyes from many of the adventurers focused on me when I confronted the monsters It would be best If I left here as soon as possilble [flight, fly]

Similar to the compound magic float, flight is of higher difficulty At the same time that I fill my body with magic I fly through the sky like jet [Gwuuuuu]

Even though I was able to fly, the control was very hard so I was not as comfortable as I would like I fight hard to keep my posture, but I eventually begin to zig zag towards my target [I see it!]

I faced the shadow wolves gigantic figure, straight in front of me [waa!]

The power of high speed flight put me directly in front of the shadow wolf, with my fist out with the power of〈super strength〉my fist did not hurt all to much However the shadow wolf as well, seems to have very little of an injury [wa, what!?!]

To my sudden appearance the adventurers also had a surprised expression Though I will defeat this guy as quick as I can and then return to my work

VS shadow wolf

I who just ended the my flight magic am standing in front the unique monster shadow wolf in a crowd of monsters

[y,you! How did you do that! Just a while ago..]

The rook rank team sword at dawn's leader areku seems to be confused If i am not mistaken he is the leader of the subjugation corps as well [That is no problem, I ask of you please take care of the small fish]

[wh, what.....]

Areku seemed like he wanted to argue but that was blocked by the shadow wof [now, shall we start shadow wolf]

[Guruuu!]

It gave a courageous shout, though it seems to know that I am strong because of the punch earlier Then another monster was born from it's shadow Though they are only animal type monster it is not limited to the wolf kind [I suggest you guys stand back]

I make a parting remark to areku and my right hand hung over head [South shrine style old martial arts, first type! Sun sword gallateen]

It is a skill that is very useful but even though it is martial arts I do not know much about it I decided to bear the shame and use it

With the convergence of magic a sword began to shine in my hand It is a technique that is familiar to me, the control is easy as well, so the shape of the sword is very stable With that the shadow wolf became aware of my enormous magic, and threw a cautious shadow tentacle attack [Ha!]

However with the swing of the sword of light the tentacle disappeared [oo, wow!]

From the back loud shouts of joy were heard [is this your limit? Then I will end it quickly]

The trial was ended with the first blow

I have the feeling the other party can't do anything better than that, I think they have also realised that Though to be honest I am not attacked to much to the south prince style Though it will kill without fail

[south imperial prince style secret art!]

Using that I sent the shadow wolf straight of into the sky [Yaaaa!]

I then slipped to the wolf's abdomen and then continually unleashed alternating upwards and downward slices [Gauuuuuuuuu!]

Though it takes a lot of effort I continued at it The gigantic figure of the shadow wolf was forced into the air [NOW!]

I then created three spears which I sent up into the shadow wolf's body then it was unable to move anymore After I confirmed the wolf could not move anymore I stepped back and then returned into the air.

Ignoring the wolf who was trying to escape I changed the shape of the sun sword which I was holding in my right hand into a spear [Then this is it!. Valkyrie strike!]

Aaa. that technique has such a shameful name Whats up with the maiden! I'm a man!

It's because of my stupid grandfather, he always said it was a tradition of the family for over 1000 years, but still why is it mixed with english!

I sent a tsukkomi to who had already left five years ago while throwing the spear at the wolf It struck the wolf who was struggling to escape perfectly At the same time the wolf disappeared and the spears that had pierced it fell to the ground The ground shook with the impact while the light shone through the wolf's body when it was disintegrating What was left was a black fang some fur and a large pile of coins Because the shadow wolf as defeated all the monsters it summoned also disappeared instantly [aaa.....you did it.....?]

I heard many adventurers behind me utter confused words [You, who are you....?]

I heard the voice of areku, which was obviously shaky It would be trouble some if I answer honestly To avoid an annoying situation I kept the mask and sunglasses the entire time [I am just a regular traveler]

After I threw out that line I quickly flew away with flight magic [wha , please wait!]

Though Areku was chasing after me yelling I quickly returned to town ignoring him With that the adventurers successfully defended the town and a crisis was averted

Winding up

One day a messenger came to me from the guild

[Minamiya Kouya right?]

[Yes, that's me]

[I'm sorry but please come to the guild, the branch manager is calling you]

Well I guess I have to accept this, otherwise I might be kicked from the guild.

[Here is the back door, the branch head is waiting inside]

Though I don't understand well, I make my presence known by knocking on the door three times [Yes, enter]

A quiet voice of a middle aged man came from inside the room [E,excuse me]

A table is inside the room in the center with two wide sofas on opposite sides A man of approximately 50 was sitting while salina is at the back I am Rudolph, manager of alstroemeria adventurer guild branch [Nice too meet you]

[here, please sit]

As urged, I sat in the sofa I was directed to [Today I wanted to talk to you about something, thank you for coming all this way]

[what would you like to hear?]

I only now one reason why the guild leader would call me out [It's about the battle with the shadow wolf]

However he hit the bullseye, It was so accurate I trembled slightly

[... oh but I only help at the rear?]

However my poker face quickly returned

[However it is useless to hide it. Salina please tell Kouya here at it]

According to salina, there was a man with black hair, who had suspicious clothes on knocked it down as well as a man of the same appearance handed out magic medicine which worked very well, as well as clearing out a large crowd of monsters Those stories match and are of the same person

Unfortunately there was an adventurer in the crowd who reacted, Dizzy who was brought in to hear about the testimony [Dizzy knows Kouya very well, so with that I got a hint and was able to solve it quickly]

There is no other adventurer group that know me very well after all Perhaps the mask and sunglasses were not enough to hide my identity [Well... if it known, there is no point to hide it any longer. Yes I was the one who defeated the shadow wolf [Still.... Why did you disguise yourself, defeating something like the shadow wolf your fame will rise instantly and climbing rank would be easy Rudolph seems puzzled

[well, I am not too interested in working as an adventurer, though it is useful for me, I am not interested in the raising of my rank for fame]

Though it is also a troublesome thing

[humu, though to defeat the wolf and not get anything from it is a huge waste don't you think]

Because I had lots of strength it did not seem to much to me. Though my behavior seems to have been remarkable [... though I only did it because the report from the subjugation team was taking too long]

I did not consider that a secret I should worry about [..... Indeed though why did you judge that the subjugation corps was not enough]

[It was for the only reason that the report did not come back]

[But from the report you did not spend much time at all thinking about attacking though]

Well that thing was easy so it did not require my thinking However it was because of the gift that I did not spend much time on it [... how perceptive]

I will need a painful excuse for this

[... well it probably best to move away from that subject, let's move onto the treatment of the dropped items]

Rudolph then began the explanation

The dropped item is worth quite a large amount so rudolph wanted to talk to me about it Everyone who participated seem to get a share

However won't the pride of the high rank adventurers be hurt if their cut is reduced [Well then, don't you think that you should get a moderate share?]

[Well, if my name will be known, then I decline]

[well atleast you should accept this]

[Uuu?]

The figure on the paper shook my head

[... though I am charmed a peaceful life is best...]

If I accepted it might have interrupted my peaceful life]

Though that place has not arrived yet, I should expect to see many of those situations in the future ... blood rushes to my head quickly, so I should always be carefull [Is that so? You have an amazing strength you will be pulled into some conflict eventually. You should prepare]

I was replied to with a vague story about fate, Though I also felt a mysterious power in Rudolph's eyes Everything became silent I only nodded

[Well then I have heard everything I want to hear. Let's end this now]

I was worried but it seems he stopped pursuing it

On the inside it appears these people are not so bad

[Thank You Kouya I hope you have a productive day as an adventurer today]

While saying that Selina began to lead me out the door [Selina Though I intend to stay an adventurer I don't think I will be working today though]

[is that so. Is that because I threatened you during the compulsory quest?]

About the compulsory quest, though it was dirty, it was probably necessary [No. that's fine the town was under attack, I would've acted sooner or later]

Honestly such thing as a grudge was not on my mind

[Yes, I do regret it but it was a necessary action to protect the town]

There was a radical change in her expression what was previously gloomy regained its brightness

internet 36

The town of alstroemeria was noisy around the time of the shadow wolf but has started to calm down since then

Since that day I have not acted as an adventurer, I spent most of my time working towards the renovations

I went back and forth with saitou many times through telephone At the same time I gathered information necessary for the construction Through these exchanges the final design was complete just a few days ago My original plan was to demolish the building then rebuild it [You should just build it in some free land and then demolish it when you need more space]

Saitou was right, there is plenty of space, enough for three more buildings So I decided to go with saitous proposal

If I demolished It I would need to find space for everyone to stay in, Though I am saved from that now As well if I demolished the building it would take more time for construction, because I would need to clear the land I recently aquired all the materials from japan I needed and foundation construction began [Please dig a hole that size, An error here will be a big issue so be carefull]

The base of the building is dug up using earth magic

This in an important step, So I confirmed it multiple times At the same time I sent images and video to Saitou so he could confirm it aswell The communication only began less than a month ago and I have already begun working on the new building It was flowing quite well

First I started the foundation, and the some basic piping Then I layed down block

This was all part of making a firm base

I divided the building earlier so It was easy to find the proper placemen [Has there been any problems with construction?]

[There is no problems that I know of, But I am slowly become accustomed to this]

Though I who is an amateur knows nothing about this

But I am slowly getting better at construction in another world .....but skill is a product of experiences

So the next day I insert a headset into the smart phone and call Saitou The basic preparations are complete, So I need to call saitou to know what is next [First you need to relaxe it is not so difficult]

Did he read my mind? But It still eases my heart

[It will only take a short while, but from what I see from the images is quite good. Again if there is a problem don't hesitate to ask me]

[.....Roger]

With what Saitou said, I no longer feel the tension

With that the construction of the base will be complete in less than two hours. And then the construction of the building will begin On the assemble base, blocks are stacked up upon eachother What I was surprised about was that there wasn't much noise.

The transfer of the blocks was quite smooth

While checking the gaps between the blocks, the construction was finished in around three hours I finished earlier than expected, I was quite surprised about that [Fufu, It was a pleasure to work with you. Please use Burannyui design office again [I will, I will. Having you to arrange for the materials was quite helpful]

The new building was complete without any problems

Though because a considerable amount of time was spent on the preparation I can not give an accurate time [Mr. Kouya, have you already finished it?]

They were likely to have been watching from a distance When I finish, Fina came down

[I have Fina, This is the new building, I have a feeling it's going to be great]

[As expected of Mr. Kouya]

Fina cramped up her face but also praised me

It is an unusual attitude for Fina, but it also puts a smile on my face Though the design of the externals is not complete, the inside it still good The outside is pure white, it is also of a box shape so it is far from the norm in this world.

How even that was related to the functionality

Regret? There is none

internet 37

I was a bit disappointed with Fina's reaction but I will guide her around the inside. I will also take this time to do a security inspection [Uwaa, it's so shiny]

According to Fina, the new walls and floors seem to shine. Well, it is a new building, that of course is natural [This is just the first floor, do you want to see the dining room first?]

However, such things as furniture have not been arranged, so it is just a wide empty room. However, the kitchen that I poured a lot into is complete [is this the dining room? Waa, the kitchen is so big and wide!]

[Fina, please lift up a little on this]

I show her the faucet

While she did it, she seemed puzzled

[You just push the lever back down]

[a, it stopped. This is great, this is the first time I have seen anything like that]

Fina, who was in high spirits, repeatedly turned it on and off again.

This is the result of all the hard effort I put into rigging up water. Up To now water was either drawn from a well, from the net mail store or made with magic. It is hard to draw from a well, and the others are also quite hard to do. However, in this new building, I have set up water service. The source is a large tank on the roof that collects rain water.

Because I do not know much about rain in this area, I plan to replenish it with water by using magic when it gets low. In the future, I plan to make it pump from a well.

After that, I continued to talk about the kitchen with Fina, who seems like she was liking the building more than at the start. [Then the next room is the bath house.]

I guided Fina to the bath house.

The room was large and tiled, with a large bathtub.

[Waa, the bathhouse is so wide!]

Before the bath was set up in the orphanage, I used the one in town. Although the area is nice, but there are many users, so I was not able to take my time in the water. [Here we can take as long as we like in the water.]

[Really? It seems like it will be nice!]

Fina's face made a strange expression. It seems she can't imagine taking time in the water leisurely. Though there are many things to boast about, the goal was to give a guide to the building. So I leave for the next place.

Because in the living room and training room, there is no furniture moved in, I skip those and move to the upper floors.

The second floor is the men's living space and the third women's. There is mostly two person rooms, but there are a few single rooms near the entrance. Though it was possible to make single rooms for everyone, I decided it will not be good for their education if I give them so many luxuries. Because there is a plentiful number of rooms, there is no need to worry about if the number of orphans increases. I will be able to help to some degree. [Such a beautiful room, will everyone from the orphanage stay in here?]

[....Fina, you know you will also stay here]

The situation up until now Fina slept on a futon with me In this new building there was plenty of room

Because of that Fina might think that she will stay with me [Ee? Mr. Kouya..... What was that?]

Fina looked up to me with a glistening eyes

[I also heard from Tiana that three people want to be adventurers Fina who had common dealings with Fareno company, seems to have gotten intimate with everyone of blue rose The story was that three of the older kids at the orphanage are aiming to become an adventuring team To go into such a dangerous job, I do not understand it, but I will not stop those who wish to become independent I also hear that blue rose have been giving guidance to those people in their free time I think I should treat them to a party once again

As Fina was talking about blue rose, she was laughing but i as not a funny story [it's because I am your slave]

[that is not a reason, because tomorrow Fina will not be my slave]

Detaching the collar is quite easy, it only requires a small fee.

Though it will be a bit painful if the person working for me leaves, The children of the orphanage need to be educated I brought up freeing fina a few times but it was always denied by her [Mr. Kouya..... Do you want to throw me away?]

Fina stared at me with wet eyes

[There is no meaning to it, though if you want to leave you can do so]

[The thing I want most is to be by your side!]

She confronts me, but it is the first time I have seen her use such strong words against me [... is that so. Thank you but it is already decided you will be freed tomorrow]

Though it is selfish of me, I as a former japanese person could not become familiar with a slavery system And recently Fina was eating well, as is growing steadily Having a collar on her is demeaning to my spirit

However I will allow Fina to be independant

[such a thing.....]

Fina had a look of great sadness

[Fina, please think about it. I after you are no longer a slave I will allow you to do what you want.... I will also help as much as I can]

After all the rooms were checked, I concluded the tour Meanwhile, there was silence between me and Fina

Fina POV

I am Fina

I'm a slave of Kouya

Only a few days ago the slave collar was removed The sense of loss was great, the collar that I had for a long time was gone. My bond with Kouya was gone, I felt that it is very scary [Please be relieved, I would not throw away Fina]

Such a thing was said while He pet my head, it was comforting Still, that I am no longer his slave makes me sad But, why do I think in such a way

Normally being freed would be a happy thing I think a lot of slaves work hard to achieve that I also thought of that before being bought by Kouya It took awhile to become calm, but I managed to rearrange my thoughts Then a certain conclusion came to surface .....certainly, I have been depending on him too much To me a slave, he treated me with kindness He treated me the same as he did everyone else From my eyes, he is a very attractive man He has black hair and eyes, but regular features, his body is large and the what is most splendid is He is a person that would never walk away from someone in need, he is truly warm Perhaps it's because of that that he is popular with the surrounding women Especially Dizzy and Lizuria , they obviously hold good will towards him And I am also the same

I noticed such a thing

However I am too young, I am not even seen as a woman The only thing that I was able to boast was that I was his slave, I was the only one If you change your view I was a special thing for him ...In my mind It was empty, but in my heart it was good thing Perhaps I might have been noticed

It doesn't benefit me when you look at my situation, so I guess he freed me thinking so But the way I stand next to Kouya will change But first I will need to become independant When I am dependant on him he will not be able to see me at eye level After that, I consulted Tiana of blue rose And then I decided

[Mr. Kouya I want to become an adventurer with Tiana I pointed out that adventurer seemed like an interesting job When I lost my family I felt powerless

Therefore adventurer is perfect work

[Is that so..... If it is too much don't force yourself]

I was glad at his acceptance, but he seemed worried [Yes! But if I work as an adventurer what about the Farenno company?]

[you do not need to worry about that.It has settled down because of the construction,I decided I would go to the store by myself for awhile.But the children from the orphanage may be able to help as well.]

[ah, so it like that.....]

Though I will not resign, It was just a little irritating But thinking like that is no good, I need to get a grip.....]

[Fina. If you ever need help. This place will be here.Fina is like my younger sister. So you can rely on me any time if there is a need]

[.....Younger sister, is it?]

Though it is understandable, it is not possible to be seen as a woman However, I am in the middle of a growth period When I grow big, I will immediately return [KOUYA IS THE BEST!] (Kouya daisuki desu) With that I also cling to his arm

I mimicked what Dizzy has done once before, but since that I have improved [o, oou I also like Fina]

Even though the meaning is different, I am still satisfied with that However....

I will become independent and live on as an adventurer

Al's POV

My name is Alumehi Fareno. My friends call me Al

Though I began as an aristocrat's son, I am now a merchant I met a young man by the name of Kouya, just by chance

[Sorry, I assumed it to be Bouto inadvertently]

I would have reconsidered

The distribution of consumable goods seem to begun showing strange movement When I investigated more it seems that the country Rusheria is going to attack, this is troublesome When I first met Kouya he was looking for a place to sell his salt That was a good situation for me, that would be I would not need to go an alternate route to acquire some But at that point I had no particular interest in him

However I was overwhelmed by the quality of the salt he had

[This, is this even salt?]

What I saw was much different to salt I have seen before

It doesn't have anything mixed with it and it is also pure white I was also surprised at the grain size

[Excuse me]

Is this really salt, What does it taste like? While driven by such curiosities I dipped my finger in and licked it I have tasted poison many times, but even this was unexpected The impact that the salt had given me was much more

The moment it touched my tongue I received a heavy taste of salt, but there was something else extra [This is certainly salt, it is also pure with very little impurities mixed in, this is wonderful where on earth did you find such a thing?]

[Aaa, well]

Though I instinctively asked the question, with the reaction Kouya showed I decided it would not be the best decision to continue If I treat this well. I could gain a hefty profit

It must be effective enough to help older brother who is an aristocrat I judged the price and transferred it safely to Kouya

Besides the price is quite low, it would be considered quite special At this point I judge Kouya to be a beginner and not know the value of such goods Ten days before the day was gone, he came in with four times as much as before. Of Course the quality was just the same It was amazing to get salt of that quality, but for such a large amount. It seemed crazy However because there was chance of profit I took the deal, but my view of him changed The next day Kouya came again, with more salt So I changed the way I was dealing with him And it was the correct thing to do

From that Kouya came in almost everyday

Some spices also came in

It was strange for such expensive things to arrive in Alstomeria, even for those things to arrive in the capital would be rare I brought them seeking to increase the power of my company That stuff was also presented to older brother to reinforce my power I was anxious about where he was getting these goods from everyday, so I put a shadow on him However every time he just returned to the inn

Though I took that chance and bribed the manager to let me into Kouya's room, though I found many strange looking things I Did not find any information linked to the goods [Mr. Arumehi, is it fine to buy such little amounts of the goods when you don't know the stocking route]

[Well, it is quite an unskilled thing to do, but I want to continue the excellent relation with him, any force against him is banned]

Though I did not find the source I pulled all those following Kouya to stop A good relation is better than finding the source

Additionally, an issue came up with Kouya's amount of work As for me I do not dislike him at all

The point is that he is inexperienced and has a narrow view of things His judgement for the short-term is bad, but for the long term it is not bad at all In the town of alstroemeria my power is not small at all

Although I have no rank of nobility, with the relation with older brother and the fareno company as the acting head I have plenty of power Though I don't know if was just chance but having such a person supporting me is quite good Already many of the things I buy from Kouya are becoming the staple product of Fareno company Some commodities are very popular with the royal family who heard about it from rumos Already Kouya has become a big asset

There was such things as the trouble with Depotowaru company, I had to help with the settlement after wards To this town that brother governs has no need for such a corrupt company.

internet 40

Though I was keeping Kouya close with an excellent relation, a problem began with some unrelated people The power of the starlight church has been growing, and has started to influence even this town [Aremehi, isn't it too late to start with the salt

[Is that so, Though the church will be an embarrassing thing]

The starlight church is against our national teachings of stella sion, so it's So their relation with this country is not the best, but they hold a lot of power in other places However, up to now, There has been a pontiff in the church who holds a high standing with the king. They took part in the king's power. As well as cardinals are recently gaining a higher standing. The balance of power has crumbled. As a result, the political situation is unstable. In this town it is beginning to come into the light Though it is only my opinion, but I think the cardinals seem to have us become part of the Rusheria empire This behaviour seems to be meaningless, but it might be that they stand to profit from it Even if that is not the case, they are still an enemy of this country Because there is a good relation with both the south's runapurena alliance of nations and the east's demon king country, the empire is the only hostile one The only nation that would attack would be Rusheria, because there is profit in that It can be said that it is natural

But in a small town like alstroemeria there is not much information about the empire from the north However I wish to draw things away from older brother as much as possible But I will need help to stabilize the power

In an unstable situation, A big event happened in the royal capital A coup d'tate occurred

As a result everyone in the palace and the royal family was arrested, excluding one person The second prince was the last one, the whereabouts of who was unknown, with that the capital fell into a chaotic situation Though it is a matter of great importance, one which was related to the future of the country, not many outside knew of it due to the blockage of all the gates The merchants were prohibited from entry and exit, then the adverse side effects began to appear from the lack of trade Unfortunately, this town, alstroemeria was also facing a crisis with it In the forest a unique monster was confirmed

Even it was peaceful before, the coming of a unique monster made it a danger zone A unique monster is always dangerous, able to lead a large amount of monsters against a village If you look into the past there have been many towns who were ruined by a unique monster. An immediate response is necessary Presently there are three teams of rook rank who stay in the town

Though there is no problem as there are two who are top class

Even if you compared two of the rook class there will be differences In the rook rank it can be quite diverse

Other than the adventurers, there is the knights of the local lord Because they are constantly trained, and are professional knights, their strength is not low, but one alone is not able to defeat a unique monster Afterall I am only a merchant there is not much I can do

I cannot help with the fight, but I am able to afterwards

Praying for a good fight against the unique monster, I then turned my attention to the report which made me doubt my ears It is said that Kouya was able to beat the unique monster by himself Furthermore in another report, he came up as being able to fly, cast large scale flame magic to exterminate the demons and also hand out wonderful magic medicine in large quantities [Just what have you done, Kouya!]

I who just heard the report shouted out, forgetting about my subordinates in the area Clearly it is bad to show such things here

[Please search for more detailed information and afterwards please try get some of that medicine]

I who regained my footing instantly have out the instructions

The things I need to do increased again

My busy day seems to continue, I also attached a sigh quietly

After I finished the new building I spent most of days in my room, Everyday was mostly calm Even if you were to say that there is nothing to do, there is always work to do I performed business with Farenno again, while Fina is working hard to become an adventurer However, I don't think that will continue for much longer Focusing on the children, there is quite a large amount of them, Rita seems to be the lead the children interested in business Everyone is from blue rose is still doing the guard work. But also they are getting another job Because of promotion from knight rank to bishop usually one would leave the guard mission, but they did not resign, it seems like from goodwill [Because Kouya returned, Our power is not needed]

[sorry, To be honest I was planning on moving to other work earlier]

[Do not worry, because I was able to gather many things, in various ways]

They seem to keep receiving requests to aim for the rook rank During the shadow wolf subjugation the ability difference between me , bluerose, and the rest of the rook rank adventurers The day they reach rook rank would not be so far away

[Mr. Kouya! We are leaving to go work hard at a request from the guild today]

Fina and the older kids from the guild including tiana, Lloyd and snow leave early every morning to go work as an adventurer Yesterday I talked to the receptionist salina and she said that their promotion to pawn rank might not be too far away The strength enhancing drink might be helping, Everyone from blue rose also seem to be practicing every day, But if you look at just raw power, They are able to be Knight rank already, it is without a doubt true By the way, I have already been promoted to knight rank Salina said

[.....You played a large role in the subjugation of shadow wolf, However , Kouya does not want to draw attention to himself, Though the promotion will stay at knight rank , Things like this you will usually go to bishop or rook]

For higher ranking adventurers this town is insufficient The higher level ones go to the labyrinth city.

It is the area with the highest level monsters with a large labyrinth that sprawls under the city so many high level adventurers want to go to In the large labyrinth you can fight many monsters of the strength you are at, the further down you go the stronger that get, so you can be shown on a hierarchy easily Due to it being underground gives the bonus of not having monsters migrate into the area In this place the coming of a unique monster does not come, so there is also less danger for lower level adventurers Many adventures to this date challenge the large labyrinth Though I wondered, The adventure guild in this town, They request many high ranking adventurers by themselves So, To me who does not have any fault in ability, It might be a good idea to get to the rook rank quickly ◆

My days of spending my time calmly has finally ended It was an early morning with a wide clear blue sky [ko, Kouya! Someone has collapsed!]

Fina with a worried expression came to the room

Three others with uneasy faces came in aswell

[Fumu, please take me to them]

[I was led to the outskirts by Fina]

A girl was face down, while surrounded by weeds

Her stature was small like fina, maybe around 15 years old [OI! Are you alright?]

Though I called and tapped on the shoulder I got no response I put the girl on her back And I was able to confirm the presence of breath [Suuuu.....
Suuuu.....]

Fortunately the breath was easy

The question is, are they just asleep?

This feeling is that of someone in a deep sleep

[Do not worry]

I let out a sigh of relief while saying so

[Fina, can you please ask Liz for preparation of bed]

[Ye, YES!]

I carried the girl to a room in the orphanage

Before she awoke a day had passed

When I went in to peek at the progress, she woke up, perhaps she heard the sound [Where.....?]

[This is the orphanage outside of alstroemeria]

[.... ... Ha]

To my answer, the girl looked down]

[Why did you fall at such a place?]

[as for that]

After knowing her circumstances I felt the peaceful days were about to end

internet 42

The girl who was found outside is in a bed in the orphanage Having talked to the girl after she woke, I heard a story I did not want to hear [Why did you fall in such a place

[about that....]

She seemed to have an embarrassed face when she was answering [Well before that, let's introduce each other beforehand, I am Kouya a merchant]

[I am Amy, and my family are vampires, I thank you for helping me]

[It was the children who helped you, so you should say that to them]

[I understand]

Vampire is a race that is in the category of devils The royal family of the demon king country bifuresuto is also of the same race In that country a majority of the people are if the devil catagory, much different than the human countries [You're a vampire are you not a citizen of Bifuresuto? Why are you in this town?]

The town of alstroemeria is in the centre of the country, the border to Bifuresuto it nowhere near here However even with the distance people from that country don't really travel This is actually the first time Amy has been anywhere near this town Even if you call them part of the demon group, Vampires like Amy are quite close to humans though it is not recognised On of the major differences is that the quality of magic is different, Though I cannot feel any difference, I have grown insensitive to the magic of others [.....Before you answer, can I confirm one thing?]

[Hmmm? What is it?]

Though it goes without saying this is the first time I have seen this girl She has silver that hung down to her shoulders

For something as impressive as this I would surely remember something Nevertheless, the girl talks like she is familiar with me [you, are you a hero?]

With those words my heart popped

It does not look good

I was sent by the goddess to this country as a hero Though it is necessary to clarify

[Fumu, that is bit of a story]

[I understand well if you intend to hid it, I have met many heroes, you are quite obvious you have magic much higher than most regular people]

I was aware about the quantity, but is the quality also diferent I saw conviction in Amies eyes

I am a poor talker, so it will be hard to lie

[Well.... you could say I am something like a hero, though it is not quite right]

I accepted this fact, So I answered, It would be a waste of time to struggle [..... what do you mean?]

[Though I am a hero, I refuse to admit that]

[Ah, well. It must be that you were sent by Stella zion?]

[Well that is right, but who are you]

I don't feel any kind of malice from Amy

It seems she is no Hero hunter

[I am a spy from the demon country, sent to spy in the capital of rusheria kingdom, have you heard about the three heroes they summoned]

[well, I did hear about those guys from the goddess]

Though Stella did tell me, I do not remember much of it [The goddess name Stellarush the older sister of Stella Zion is the one who summoned them]

[my King knows about such things, and has heard that they are planning to begin conquering neighbours, so I have been sent to gauge their strength]

That reminds me, I did hear about imminent invasions I was going to ignore it for some time, but I seems I can no longer do that [Do these heroes, have dangerous abilities]

I was given the gifts, so there is a high chance that they did as well The gift which I got was quite dangerous in the wrong hands Depending on what they got, it might be troublesome [..... what are the gifts? That I do not know, the investigation is yet to begin. However I am able to say, that they were summoned by a evil god, Then they are likely to be worthless people. And the current leader of the empire. Is focusing greatly on the heroes. The opposition is already been swept away]

I guess from from Amy's point of view goddess Stellarush is the bad character The sisters are both worthless

[The story wandered..... I wanted to ask, To you who is a hero, they are someone you want to defeat, Otherwise the continent will fall into chaos]

[However, I refuse]

[..... You answered quickly, is there a reason?]

Though she reacted to my answer she continued to push for more [No, well ..... it's troublesome isn't it?]

[troublesome? ..... At first I was relieved but now not so much]

[Understanding that quickly is helpful]

The fate of the country, is something someone at the top should worry about And I think it would be dangerous to work under the current situation [Well..... What if I offer you my body? I am still a virgin]

Well Even if you say that, I am not particularly relieved [Uumu, though it is an attractive offer, I refuses. That is something you should do with who you like]

I was slightly ashamed to say so

You should never say such a thing

I threw such a selfish complaint at amy in my mind [It was unexpectedly a failure, Though you do not seem the type to be moved with money either]

I think she over estimates me a little

In the case of money it might be easier

Though no so much know I am not troubled with money currently [Well, you came from another world right, You want information?]

[Fumuu, That is interesting, but just that much will not do]

[So, then. How about other people who migrated, If I remember correctly the name was Byakuya, I could tell you about them]

Byakuya!?

Why did the name of my grandfather come out?

[Amy, that please let me hear it in detail]

I jumped for it, and Amy's face turned to a smile [Hee? This information seems to be able to move you]

Damn, I failed

I am dumb

[hmm, How is it done? if you want to know the details, You will first cooperate with me. However even if you refuse, No one in this country knows about it, They are all hiding in a village far away]

That might be true, If he were to come out the rumors would spread instantly It is my grandfather after all

Though the only transmigrated person that I want to know about is my grandfather But, It might not be my genuine grand father

Though I cannot find that out for myself

[For now, I will work with you, Though I cannot promise that I will defeat the enemy heroes]

The three heroes, I do not know them. So I cannot say for sure If I can defeat them And the promise to kill someone is impossible

[Good, If you do not fight them directly it is fine, there is no worry]

[Though they are a neighboring country, if you are alone, might you be assassinated, and be replaced with a mimic]

[Ee, of course. First of all....]

Amy began to say something but was interrupted

[Ko, Kouya, Someone has collapsed!]

Fina said something similar to this morning

[Again...]

Two people found collapsed in one day.

Before leaving, I issue some commands to Amy who was resting in bed I then followed Fina to the collapsed person

internet 43

[Mr. Kouya, over here]

I was guided by Fina to the outskirts of the orphanage again It was almost the same place where Amy had fallen

This place, Does it have some magic to make people collapse here?

Though I did confirm the health person who fell

This time is a young man

The age does not seem too far from my own

Though I am not able to confirm the rest of the body due to the high quality clothes, He may be of a high position .....It is the smell of a troublesome thing

Even though Amy's thing is troublesome, this is even more so I wanted to ignore it, but for the sake of Fina who is next to me I have to help I confirmed the breathing and then carried him to the orphanage. Reluctantly.

Fortunately after I carried him to a bed he woke up quite fast [Wa, where am I?]

The young man said so while brushing away hair from his eyes The gesture looked strange, I felt irritation just by seeing it [Here is the orphanage of the town of alstroemeria]

[..... alstroemeria? So I.....]

The young man had a confused look floating on his face

[I just woke, and it is bad. Please would you listen to what I say]

Honestly, because it is unpleasant I would rather not, But I did not say such a thing [Aaa wait, let me introduce myself first of all. My name is torabanto Stellazion]

[Stellazion!? A royal?]

Before I could continue a loud voice came from Amy who was sleeping in the next bed [.....A what a surprise. Such an elegant girl like you in this place. Miss, what is your name?]

As torabanto turned to Amy she seem to be quite impressed [..... My name is Amy, are you the second prince of this country?]

[Aa, that is true. I am the second prince of the holy kingdom of Stellazion]

...My prediction of unpleasant things came true

But why is someone of the royal family out here

I havent even seen someone of low level nobility

[..... De,Second prince, Why were you collapsed in a place like that]

[there were various circumstances..... Do you want to hear about it?]

No I do not want to hear about it, but Amy who was next to me exclaimed, YES YES! please!

[.....Aaa, let me hear it]

[Do you know about the coup that has happened in the capital [No, it's the first I hear of it]=

[Then, I will start from there]

From the story of torabanto, I heard that a coup was staged by high ups in the church They held power of the guards of the palace and used them to capture the royal family and the king himself Torabanto is the only to have escaped

[Indeed the situation in the capital is severe]

Amy was going to hide in the capital of this country before going to rusheria, but it seems everywhere was blockaded so instead headed out for this town.

It took a long time, and also took a toll on her food so she ended up starving and collapsed

[I was in a similar situation, I too collapsed from not having any food]

Torabanto had a gyurru sound come from his stomach right after he said that [..... it seems there are two hungry people here, Shall I start on a meal?]

The three of us decided to go to the dining hall

[Wow, it's so big and beautiful]

[This orphanage.... Is of simple design, but everything is of high quality, Is this really an orphanage?]

[well, honestly it's not an orphanage, more of a house]

I tend to forget, but this is a house

I originally purchased it for such a reason

[Please sit down, and I will begin cooking, though I don't think I can cook to the standards of the royal family]

Because this is my first contact with the second prince, I do not want to be rude [Ahh, do not worry about such things, This guy will eat anything]

Torabanto said so while pointing down at his stomach

[I as well, I have become accustomed to plain food, So the anxiety is useless]

It was fine with Amy, so I moved on to cooking

This time, I defrosted frozen noodles on the stove, and made a good dish of vegetables, egg and pork The seasoning was chinese style, noodle soup

It is easy to digest as well as it is able to be made easily from ingredients commonly found in the fridge I sometimes make this when I am running low on time

[Ho ho, It was possible]

I passed the completed dish to the two people

[Fumu~ ..... what is this long white thing?]

[this is the first time I have seen food such as this]

[Though I do not think it is bad, the outside looks strange]

There are no noodles in this world, so of course they would find it strange I see them eat down the dishes quite fast though

When I look up, Amy is eating all of the food quite quickly [Hee, This is good! The texture is strange, but I might get addicted!]

After that is said, Amy seemed like she was quite interested in the food, and torabanto was as well to no less of a degree [Fumu..... it was a wonderful dish, able to blend so many spices together, It draws an exquisitetaste.How long did it take in trial and error to come across this supreme taste?]

After Torabanto finished eating, he began to say strange things ....it was only ready made seasoning, though I cannot say this In this world spices are not commonly mixed, and complex tastes do not appear in the market I had many spices, but I might be possible to reproduce it here, but that will take no short time While thinking so, I was not surprised that I was not able to tell torabanto [oh dear, that is a secret technique]

If I answer honestly it will be trouble some [muuu, I thought I would be able to mimic it if I asked]

[There is no worry... Then let us return to our talk]

After that it calmed down, and I was able to talk calmly with the two people And I will hear the circumstances of torabanto again

internet 44

After the food was eaten we held a session for torabanto to talk about himself
The reason for the coup

[The last few years? The power of the church has been growing, slowly they have gathered everything they needed in order to act, however father noticed it and began to act himself, because of that.....]

During this one month, the situation seemed to grow immensely Unreasonable demands were thrown at the king by the church on after the other It was likely to be punished severely as treason

However, the king was scared that the country would crack from losing an important thing While being scared of the end, the coup happened, and the royal family was captured [I expected a sudden change in the church's attitude, but the king doubted such things, despite the advisers saying.....]

[that is all well, but how did you escape here by yourself?]

After hearing Amy's story the security at the gates of the capital seems strict I impressed that someone from the royal family manage to escape the capital alone [even though he is the second prince, he is still an excellent magic swordsman, he even use some recovery magic]

Amy seemed to be a fan of the prince

Even though Torabanto's clothes were tattered, there was not a single wound on his body When I look at it know, this would happen if he had healing magic Recovery magic has a high difficulty

Though there is doubt that the lack of users is due to the difficulty or other reasons [even if one person person is strong you cannot change much, so how do you plan on moving forward?]

[The churches movement is not known.Though they do currently hold power,The king who had supreme power is now gone, It may become a big thing, though there may be someone backing this]

[..... A backer? Surely it is te rusheria empire]

[Yes, that one is likely, It also works well with the information that I gathered from the empire]

[.....Why does the name of the empire come up now?]

Though both amy and I understood well, torabanto knew nothing [Now that some trouble has appeared, Will you help?]

[haa..... I didn't think it would come so soon]

The talk has slowly become troublesome

The time has come, though I wonder if it is just easier to assassinate the hero party Though I am not interested in murder I just want to return to my peaceful life.

..... no no, I was being neglectful, I have no such bad habit [...Excuse me, I do not understand this conversation at all anymore, can you please explain]

[It like that, But the story is irrelevant to you]

After that I talked more about it with amy, then I explained it to torabanto I also included that I was a hero sent by stellazion

[So it's like that, Amy is a vampire? That explain how you had such a beautiful form I did not about such things like that because this is the first time I have seen a vampire But that is not important

As far as I am concerned you should prepare yourself incase Kouya is stopped by one of the heroes [However if that happens won't the demon king's army move into help?]

Biduresuto is very close to the rusheria empire in the north east Though because of mountain ranges it is difficult to send troops over [Because of the mountains it is impossible to directly attack]

[If it is the rusheria empire, I am sure that anything is possible, even taking over the entire continent]

[..... that is true but, we cannot effectively mobilize our war potential to deal an attack]

I wanted to hear the reason, but the talk moved to fast before asking [Even if you say that.... Will the country be ok without any noble allies I can use to help?]

[If there is a lord in this town, surely he will help]

[on what grounds do you stand?]

If a coup happens not just the royals but all the lords will be trialed as well If you rely on a un trust worthy person you may be sold out though [the lord of this town, Is a descendant of the demon race. Even now they hold a good relation with the demonking's country.You may think that infiltrating the rusheria empire may be low, but with the help of the local lord....]

[I have never heard about the lord, but this person in alstroemeria is related to the royal family isn't he?]

[So it's like that?]

Apparently even the royal family may be of demonic blood

It may be one of the things that the royal family is hiding I seem to be the only one who doesn't know anything

[..... Then let us rely on the nobels. We should move on immediately to meet with the local lord]

[Wait, even with the local lord we cannot trust anyone to much. I think we should be careful with everyone we meet]

[That is true then, what shall we do?]

The two people had thoughtful looks

[..... then why don't we consult with my acquaintance merchant? He is quite knowledgeable.]

Al's face crosses my mind

I am convinced that he has some connection to the lord.

[can the merchant be trusted?]

[he is a friend in profit you know, I am sure he will take the side of the prince]

About this I did not have any feeling that it could go wrong The heroes of the rusherian empire, honestly I do not think I can even guess at what they hold in store I am foolish, Though it might be that, that man will have no idea.

Though I do have a large amount of abilities I got from the goddess, I do not know anyone that could defeat me And Al also knows roughly of my combat abilities

And from what the guild told me, I expect him to know everything Though I have not known him long Al knows more about me than I do about him If you take into account the character. Al is An easy choice [.....Would Kouya also be my ally?]

Strangely torabanto asked so

[Aa, I guess there is no reason not too]

The story is that torabanto wants to oppose the empire, or make trouble for them at the least I do not think he is a bad fellow at all, It may have been fate that I am too help him .....even If I don't help here it might come back as trouble later on Then, if I move now I judged that it would be over quickly [Is that so, you are a strong person. It is reassuring]

Though I do not know his ability torabanto has the magic of priest level, If I guess from the amount of his magic [Then we should immediately go to the merchant while it is clear]

[yes, Let us go Kouya]

When I was outside the building I could hear a voice call for me from a distance

[Mr Kouya, Someone has collapsed!]

.....Again? The third today, With a sigh I looked towards Fina

Internet Cheat chapter 45

45Al's standpoint

When I reached the site with the guidance of fina, there was a small dog there
This time it appears it wasn't a person

Three people falling in the same place is not a thing that happened [Mr. Kouya..... This child collapsed by the bushes, just how...]

[well then, excuse me for a moment]

I go down and look at the dogs face

It has a beautiful coat, a mix of black and silver. It looks like a miniature dachshund that I have seen in japan before Though it seems like it is very tired

[..... is it only hungry? The I guess I will take it and give it a meal]

Well returning it might be no good

Fina watched the puppy with sad eyes, she seems very anxious.

.....fu, It is not good to laugh at such a miserable man I took the dog to the orphanage and gave it some pet food from the net mail site After feeding, the dog fell asleep peacefully with a suya suya Honestly, this guy

Though after this with persuasion from the children and fina it was decided that the dog will be kept here in the orphanage ◆

After I confirmed that the dog was ok I went back to the scheduled meeting
[Ahh, Kouya what was the problem]

The corner of Al's eyes were quite low hanging

He must be quite tired

If al is in this state, I feel bad for relying on him like this, but there is no other way [Though I am sorry for disturbing you but there is someone I wish you to meet]

[It is a bad time I am quite busy..... Is it important]

Oh dear, I expected such a thing to happen

As I approached Al's side, I whispered in his ear [The second prince has come]

[Kouya..... Why is he here?]

After hearing what I had to say, Al seemed quite suprised [Aaa I understand, please guide me]

[Amy, you are even more beautiful in the daylight, please become my wife]

[haa..... what on earth are you saying at a time like this. You?]

I took Al back to the orphanage, But I was confused as why torabanto is pursuing so intently [.....Oi Oi. what are you doing prince?]

[What, it is a miracle to meet a girls such as this, Is it not ok to make the most of the situation?]

[.....Please be at ease. Prince, I have been briefed on this matter]

From where I was standing though, Al appeared even more tired than before IT was quite strange but, there is no other way to do it.

[Aa, this is Arumehi a merchant from the fareno company]

[hmm, your face seems like a one to remember]

After the introduction, Torabantos gaze was finally removed from amy, but then he went and said something weird [...perhaps, that would be good]

[....What do you mean?]

Perhaps the prince is an acquaintance of Al?

[If I remember correctly, you are the younger brother of the local lord]

Haa?, I thought the Al was just a merchant, was it such a thing?

[That is corrent, your highness torabanto, Though I have long ago thrown the title of nobility and taken the one of a merchant]

[Al, was an aristocrat?]

It was strangely well known, A lords younger brother?

[But know just as kouya said, Now I am only a Merchant]

[Kouya though you didn't know, with this contact with the elder brother will be quite easy]

[.... My elder brother help is needed? To begin with, why are you in such a place?]

[About that....]

Torabanto talked about what happened to Al who had not heard yet [Indeed This coup is a big deal, I am bit embarrassed for not knowing about how much this has been troubling elder brother.]

During the shadow wolf attack, Al didn't seem to take it too bad, and he help the lord who is his brother [....So, then will your older brother lend me his power]

[.....That will be up to brother, I cannot answer that for myself.Though perhaps if I express my personal opinion, will it be safe? Elder Brother was originally of the king faction so perhaps he will support you.]

[Fumu,Then can I ask for preparation of a meeting with your older brother?]

[....That will easy to do]

We will meet Al's brother who is the lord of this town.

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter 46

internet 46

Through Al we set up a meeting for the next day, where we would meet the local lord I received an immediate response from the lord Amy, torabanto and I all three of us set off to the town lord [Please wait here]

The person who seemed like a servant said so when we were guided to the reception room We waited there, then we met someone much like al, except older The age is around 30?

Perhaps he is the older brother the lord.

[You highness torabanto, I am sorry to be meeting in such circumstances]

[Please raise your head, this is no time to prostate]

[.....understood, then shall we begin the talk?]

Even if you say so, it was only torabanto and amy who sat down for the talk Both Al and I are still standing

Apart from torabanto, why is Amy sitting down, then I remembered she is of high standing in the demon king's country For a girl that is so young, such things are often forgotten ...Though you could say I should be angry from having to stand but such thing is not true I am sensitive to hostility

Though I receive course treatment there is no ill will behind it.so there is no reason to feel irritated [Then we should begin with the important things]

Saying so torabanto looks to the staff around the room [Please go now]

From the word of the lord the staff leave the room I also checked near the door and no one appeared to be listening [Your highness, please tell me the story]

[Well, actually]

Torabanto talked about the coup and what he experienced Additionally the information that Amy had gathered is also shared [.....was it the empire who was backing the church?]

[Aaa, And I want you to assist in rescuing the king]

[.... I understand, however]

Before He could start there was a knocking at the door [.....How?]

[It is an emergency!]

From the other side of the door a frantic voice was heard [.....your highness, is it ok?]

After confirmation, the door was opened to a knight

[Sorry for the impoliteness, It is an urgent message,It is a message from the palace, We are now the holy kingdom of the stellarushe empire,An alliance with the rusheria empire has been formed]

Stellazion seems to have changed to stellarushe Though it might be important, it is hard to stop the fight between sisters [.....About the royal family, is there a new one]

[.....With the founding of the country, they were executed]

While the knight said so he turned and looked away [.....is that so]

The face of torabanto changed to one of sadness and I saw him clench his fist [Your highness, though I want to express my condolences..... But now is not the time to grieve, you should quickly respond to this]

Vaze the lord seemed to hesitate at cooperating [Ah, Please vaze lend me your power]

Torabanto is now looking up and using a strong tone [Ha! certainly!]

With that the cooperation of vaze was obtained [And miss Amy, Would the demon king's country help as well?]

Vaze also asks Amy

[Yes, though it may be difficult I will get reinforcements, though don't expect much]

[then the situation is cause by the church, because of the help from the Rusherian empire]

[What about runapurena from the south, will we not be able to get them to help?]

Such a remark was said carelessly

.....are you mad?

[Al, who is this man?]

Though I wasn't expecting it vaze turned to Al for help [This is the person I have been reporting about, he is the hero sent by stellazion]

Though still in a formal tone Al answered

[Well, then Hero Kouya you should also take a seat, Why is a hero standing like that?]

[Aa, then I shall do so without reservation]

[You are a Hero sent by the goddess, We are of equal standing so you don't need to be so polite]

[Then, if you insist]

According to Vaze I should use a regular tone when speaking here [Let's return to the talk, The runapurena country has always been a peaceful country, it does not mobilize it army at all due to the risk it will place on it's borders]

[Then what if this country is ruined?]

When I looked to my side both Amy and torabanto were nodding Everyone knows about something

Runapurena is a strange country

[the present situation is bad, I do not think we can face the rusherian empire by ourselves, now our country is broken there will be difficulties finding allies]

To what vase said everyone fell silent

Then Al opened his mouth

[May I say something]

[I will permit it]

[I have reported it before, but Kouya has easy access to many resource, can we not rely on that?]

[Ha? Why does Al know that anyway?]

I have not talked to anyone about the gift<Internet connection>

The only person who would know would be fina who has been beside me for a lengthy time, and it is not in her character to tell someone else [I heard you were a hero that came from across the boundary, I only presumed..... However it appears to be true]

I seem to have been caught in a trap

[Well you are right Al, I am able to connect to another world and purchase goods]

[That's is excellent, but is there anything that could help us here?]

Torabanto says something suspicious

[I do not know the range of products, I have yet to investigate it]

What kind of thing that mitsurin sells would be useful for a fight?

I have not checked for such things

Though I thought about relying on saitou, but with his connection to grandfather I want that to be a last resort From what I heard from Amy it is possible that grandfather has come to this world.

[well then, should we all go back home, and Kouya can search for helpful things]

Thus the first meeting came to a close

When the consultation with vaze the local lord was finished I returned to the orphanage [Oi.....Why do I have to go back with you?]

Some reason both Amy and torabanto are following me back [Kouya, are you going to throw me out?]

[So mean, do you want to make me camp outside?]

The two of them tried to blame me for something [No no, couldn't you have stayed at the lord's mansion especially you prince torabanto]

Isn't a prince living in an orphanage strange?

[Please don't mind the fine details, I would not be able to stay there comfortably]

[Staying in a lord's mansion does not fit well with me either]

The two people decided to come with me, So I had to prepare a guest room ◆

After completing various things and finishing dinner, I took out my smart phone I opened up a certain bulletin board and put up a question It was a test whether or not I will get any good answers

{Emergency} Things from mitsurin that would be helpful in another world{Question}

1 :Anon

Then I will speak only the truth [I have been sent to another world and I have been rolled up in a fight]

That is what I have done, someone please give me advice orz 2 : Anon

Get some medicine

3 :Anon

What kinda thing is that

I don't understand the situation 4 :Anon

Another world, is that some kind of secret language じゃなきゃ1が只の頭オカシイ奴ってことになるが.....

Then I will explain the current situation ①I have been sent to another world ②I can use the internet that I why I can use mitsurin ③As the town I am in is being caught up in a fight I want to help Here are some images as proof <image attachment>

<image attachment>

<image attachment>

6 :Anon

It has the feeling of old europe There is no CG that good

7 : Anon

It is certainly quite well done Is it another world with only this though?

8 :Anon

These images do not prove much 9 : Anon

It is quite good

To be serious enough to get CG of that quality I don't think so The time and effort for that Well with a road like that what level is the technology 10 : 1

Thank you

The technology level is that of middle ages There is no gun. It is mostly swinging swords and spears to fight However there is magic.

11 :Anon

So it's like that

Magic, what is this convenient thing Why not use a fireball?

12 : 1

>>11

Though the strength of magic is high, I have a feeling it won't work The range is also short it is just like a bow and arrow 13 :Anon

I was excited but it was blown away 14 :Anon

>>12

Even buying something from mitsurin might help For example why not this?

〈Mitsurin URL〉

It is very light and I think It would be convenient This can stop a sword or spear bt I am not sure about magic The budget how much is it?

15 : 1

Is that a bulletproof shield Well that might help....

I will use it and test it

The budget is considerably large do not worry about it 16 :Anon

Unrestricted budget, this can't be real 17 :Anon

I think so too

In case of middle ages, perhaps something like a telescope does not exist?

Though it depends of topography, It may help help 18 : Anon

>>17

If it's like that why not use a drone You can search land before hand If I am not mistaken mitsurin should have some 19 : Anon

A radio perhaps?

Communication is quite important 20 : 1

>>17-20

All that seems good

Thank You for all the replies!

By doing that I was able to obtain multiple ideas that seem useful The drone especially, I did not think of that myself I ordered the products one after the other A mountain of boxes came with that I open them one by one

These will all be shown in the next meeting

We once again met with the local lord vase [Ko,Kouya what is all this baggage?]

Torabanto said so while looking at the cart I was pulling [The things we talked about yesterday, I was able to get a collection of them]

[is that so]

Torabanto seems confused

Honestly the appearance of me pulling a car of boxes may seem strange [Don't worry about the details, did you come up with any good ideas?]

[....To be honest I had no intention of being king, I also don't have many connections with the nobles]

[I did not have any ideas either, but it may be possible to borrow a few elite people from back home]

[And how about Al?]

[I had no ideas either.More importantly what kind of things did Kouya get? They may be a big factor in the plans afterall]

Even if I prepare these things it will be a person on site who will use it Of course I do not have the know-how, me working on many things will be shot down by Al

Then we came to the lord's manor

I was asked about my luggage, but Al interceded and we were able to pass through with only a light check Vaze was already waiting and we sat down [Then, shall we have a look at what Kouya has brought in?]

[Because there is a large collect do you mind if I don't give an explanation]

[The rusheria empire has a much greater war potential, but with Kouya here it closes the gap considerably]

I will lend him my power

However with our current war potential We will not be able to rival the Rusherian empire With the current state of the country will not be able to launch a frontal attack [I understand, but I am not a professional of war, therefor I want to hear everyone's opinion]

After everyone had nodded I showed the prepared items The result, everyone raised voices of astonishment [What are these, I made light of a hero's power]

[However to change the path of war, a considerable amount of these will be needed, can you do that?]

Al asked so while looking at the supplies [That would be easy to do, but where should I store them?]

[Aa, do not worry about that]

[Well, then about the payment]

[That is natural]

[Please wait, if we have to pay for this the entire economy will collapse]

Al cried out in a hurry

[Do not worry, the price is reduced and you can pay in another way]

Honestly I do not need money

The thing I want is not money

[So Kouya, will lend this to me?]

I nod to the question of torabanto

[I decided I would help torabanto, so I will supply these things, however it is natural to request payment for work]

[And what do you want as payment Kouya?]

[I want support from you after you become king.....It will save time if you act willingly, my original goal was to live peacefully.....Let's cooperate untill you become king, and I want you to promise I will not be dragged into anything troublesome]

After this is finished I want to make the orphanage independent and be able to spend every day on the net Because I have plenty of money, perhaps a net game receiving preferential treatment would be nice [I see, using the power of the king to shut out interference from the outside, is that what you want?]

I particularly don't want anymore scoldings from the adventurers guild, stopping it with an order from the king would be nice [That is what I want]

After a brief silence torabanto answers

[I understand.....If it is just that I'm sure it will be easy]

After a brief silence torabanto answers

[Aa, well I did not want to become king, but I will still work towards fulfilling that promise]

[I understand, as long as I get that it will be fine]

Because my demand was passed I opened what I had hidden in my hand [Next, is this guy here]

I put the cylindrical container of the ointment on the table [What is this?]

Though torabanto seemed curious Al was suprised Because I spread a lot of these during the shadow wolf event, he should have come across some [I will explain it now]

I took out a knife from my pocket and cut my arm Naturally, blood came out

I did not feel the pain due to the gift〈Pain killer〉

This gift allows the sense of pain to be disabled, even with this other senses remain the same But this was necessary to show the ointment [Wa, WHAT!?!]

All members except Al seemed to react in surprise to my action [Please pay attention]

I opened the lid and applied ointment

Then light formed around the wound for a moment [Ooo, is this the power of medicine from across the boundary?]

[.....Oh dear, what a thing]

In japan it did not have such an immediate effect though I did not mention it here [Well, with this my recovery magic is useless]

Torabanto then on had a cramped face

[With this we would surely win against the empire]

Amy had joy at what I had shown

But Al just muttered, [After All it is that Kouya]

Thus with everything I offered, We had a plan to confront the empire Now we wait to see how many allies Vaze can gather My work is to oppose the three enemy heroes What kind of people are they?

My name is stellarushe

The people of this world call me a goddess They view us as the most powerful beings, but there are many restrictions, though this I do not mind Though even for entertainment we are not allowed to interfere to much However the people above do not understand these feelings, and only left me in control of a small region, the rusherian empire The thing that shocked me was my younger sister To fill in a hole from some of my region I lost, they sent in my sister [I'm sorry, my elder sister]

Those words were said, but there was a smile on her face [You! Are you trying to make a fool out of me?]

When I shouted at her, she took two steps back [... it is a misunderstanding]

Though she was a sister that barely talked she was easy to read Again, I was rubbed the wrong way

But she disappeared when I was going to vent my anger [Running away, so quickly.....]

I have decided

I will move the mortals and get back my land from my sister ◆

The preparation advanced over many years

While also doing my usual work I summoned three heroes Usually you can only invite one hero

So I needed a large amount of time

The heroes I summoned were two men and one woman I wanted only men, but the requirements for a hero is quite strict But I decided to endure it

The people who were summoned are from a country called Japan on the planet Earth The first is a person who has blonde hair and it is almost impossible to guess their gender from looking at them [hmmm..... Where is this?]

In a timid voice one asks me

This appearance reminds me of my sister and only infuriates me [Welcome, Segawanagisa, This is the land between worlds]

I did not show any of my true emotion, I only focused on acting as a gentle goddess [You are....]

[I am the Goddess, StellaRushe]

[Goddess?]

Though they look confused there is no sign of distrust This person named Nagisa appears to be easier than I thought This seems like persuasion will be easy

[There is a thing that I want to ask of you Nagisa]

In that way I explain the circumstances

The Resherian Empire is my domain and it is in danger from the Holy Country Stella Zion I asked the hero to save the empire

I also gave a gift it would be impossible for a regular human

[Leave it to me, I will do my best!]

My act as a kind goddess seems to have worked well It looked like he had fallen in love with me, which is a natural reaction Though they seem a bit clumsy which is unpleasant To be frank, it makes me feel sick

Even though I was disgusted, I saw him off with a smile

Next was a person with glasses and black hair Just like nagisa they also came from japan [Here is.....?]

[welcome, kagemine satoru, this is the land between worlds]

Though this time it they appear to be doubtful [I don't understand.....]

I thought that this person would be smart, but it looks like their head is overheating already I seem to have pulled in a troublesome person, so I gave a briefing just like I did with nagisa [well, that would be good to kill time]

This person seems lazy, but still accepted my terms and started on a journey to the rusherian empire I did not like the looks of this one, I forgot what he looked like immediately Having come to the end it is a woman named kanza kistubaki Just like the other two, from japan

She would probably be classed as a beautiful woman, but to me who wasn't interested it was a trivial thing Though communication with her went surprisingly well I will skip the explanation, but she seemed to have a strong sense of justice, I could tell since before we talked easily ◆

Thus I sent three heroes to the rusherian empire It would be best if they destroyed stellazion kingdom But even if they fail it will ease my boredom Thinking about that, I got tired after talking for so long and began to sleep peacefully

Hero nagisa

The names segawa, segawa nagisa

From japan, A regular high school student I am at a loss at the question whether I am a true japanese though I have fair hair and blue eyes, to say I am japanese is a hard thing My parents are both japanese with black hair why I am the one that is different?

Though, on my father's side, there is one person who is from a foreign country I also have a face that makes you wonder about my gender, It also doesn't help that I have the name nagisa, I was often mistaken for a female quite often I was showered with cold eyes from all the girls when I talked to any guys so I ended up left out of many things I was in such a state when something happened I suffered a traffic accident

No, to say it more accurately I was run over by a truck An now in front of me is a beautiful woman stood in front of me She had two differently coloured eyes, she had a mysterious feeling floating from her [Um.... where is this?]

I ask the woman in front of me while admiring her figure Then she gave me a kind smile

At that I felt my heart leap.

[Welcome, segawa nagisa. This is the land between worlds]

Why does she know my name

[You.....]

[I am the goddess stellarushe]

[Goddess?]

Though she does look one, is she really?

But I saw the divine smile again, I no longer doubted such things Rather, if a person of such beauty said they were a human I would doubt them [Actually, there is something I would like to ask]

The goddess then talked about her story It was decided that I would go to another world to help the goddess I is not possible to go back to japan as I was run over by a truck, But I do not regret anything from that life I was given a gift from the goddess, It was a very attractive offer A choice to refuse was not a thing I had [Leave It to me,I'll do my best]

I answer the goddess quickly

.....Before I noticed, I mind was a slave to the goddess I was to be sent to the saint continent, in the other world amupatori ◆

It was an old church which stood quietly in the imperial capital of Rusherian empire, I am currently in the suburbs [It can't be, this.....]

[Is it true?]

There was a collection of men of all ages gathered around me So to them I spread the word of the goddess [Pious believers! I am hero Nagisa sent by the goddess stelllarushe It was very effective, many shouts of joy came out [OOOO IT WAS TRUE!]

[The goddess did not desert us!]

[HERO, HURRAY]

Though I flinched from their reactions, but it was good that they were excited I am not good with noisy atmospheres I was uncomfortable I embraced being a hero, So i went to meet with the emperor When I went to the castle I got the same looks as what the girls gave me during school.

[Hero nagisa, I am the princess Liz She had a smile as deep as the ocean, much like the goddess I met earlier I once again felt I heart leap

I talked with her a bit and by the end I thought she was very nice Of Course there is still a wide gap between her and the goddess I was guided by liz to a meeting

[This is the hero I trust?]

I heard such a thing from the throne It was a plump man, with two woman on each side This.... is the emperor?

I had to turn my eyes away from him, I do not like him [Yes, I am nagisa]

I answered so while kneeling, looking to the sides By this time, everyone except except the emperor the woman and a female knight left .....he is quite a fan of women

My respect for him shrunk even further With such a man as the leader of this country, it may be hard to fulfill the goddesses wish ...I thought I would be able to do it quickly [You, knights look at me silently]

I stood up and used all my spirit to attract attention [What are YOU doing?]

The emperor confronted me and seemed to be quite angry [Hey, catch Him]

Though he sent out an order no one acted [Hurry, Why are YOU not moving]

Though he was yelling hysterically no one moved [It is useless, they are already my prisoners]

I used the gift I got from the goddess 〈Root temptation〉(rūtotenputēshon any Ideas?) It is an ability that will enchant those of the opposite sex It will help a lot for me who is weak to women It was a good idea from the goddess Everyone in the room except the emperor is enchanted by me The dirty emperor who only employed women to be by his side is the enemy [Your majesty emperor, you will die]

I also got the gift of〈fantasy creation〉

It allow me to make anything that exists in my knowledge What can be made depends on my imagination, but it is limited to only one item at any time There are many limitations but the adaptability is very high, it is a very splendid ability With this I made a stun gun

With enough power to die from the shock But as expected killing the emperor will be a bad thing as well if this were to get out [Please restrain him]

To my words the knights assisted me [That]

The power of the stun gun was maxed and I placed it above the emperor's heart [GUHEE]

His body began to shake and he also began to moan However I ignored this and continued with applying the shock [GWEEEE]

[Huh? Is this done?]

Though the emperor keeps moaning, It doesn't appear that he has died yet The stun gun was removed but there was a large burn mark under it [This is very troublesome]

I had a bright idea

I removed the stun gun and made a knife [Alright, you can die now]

[GUE]

When I thrust the knife into the neck a large amount of blood came out and the breathing finally stopped [Recovery, Heal]

I used magic to seal the wound were blood had flowed from After I killed him I thought I should close the wound But nothing happened, the wound was still wide open Hmm, why?

[Nagisa, healing magic is not effective on the dead]

I heard a voice from behind me

It was liz, who's father I had killed not long ago I was wondering If I should attack her as well, but i remembered my gift so I did not worry [Liz, how should I do this?]

[Nagisa, don't worry leave it to me!]

I was relieved as liz showed me a kind smile once again [Thank you liz]

According to liz the death will be handled as a shocking and sudden one of uncertain cause and the burial will be in the dark\

Three heroes

I had killed the emperor to take his position by force, the princess may take his place However

[I am the next in line for the throne, but I want Nagisa. I want nagisa to be the emperor, but that is limited to those of royal descent]

This talk became serious quite quickly

Why is it that I will marry liz?

Even with<Root temptation>it is hard to control such things I will learn about this skill one thing at a time .....However if it is liz, there is nothing bad about it So I accepted the proposal of liz

It will be my debut, as the husband of the empress of the Rusherian empire, liz I immediately invited liz to the bedroom to scatter her purity?

I truly wanted my first time to be with the goddess, but I will endure it with liz Because she is much like the goddess in both figure and atmosphere she is a worthy substitute [Ahhh, stop Nagisa!!]

Even if there is resistance coming from the mouth, there is none from the body The power<Root temptation>Is wonderful indeed The next night I called liz, some female nobles and some of the knights to the bedroom for some carnal pleasure Ah, thank you goddess for allowing me to be a hero Meanwhile two other heroes were summoned

With this I felt relief, with this the mission from the goddess will be easy to complete I invite them to sit around the throne

Liz showed a kind smile was standing up

Usually she would sit, but she did not hesitate [I Just you I am a hero sent by the goddess the these lands. I am hero Nagisa]

The first to come was a hero, a man just like me [My name is satoru, In this case should I introduce myself as hero Satoru?]

I do not feel any motivation in his voice

[By chance are you japanese?]

The new hero had a japanese face with black hair and glasses I feel that he must be intelligent, I used to envy those who were [Aa, it is like that.... But you must be confused]

In front of me was a face that was deep in thought [I am the same japanese as you, also I am a man.]

After that, satoru fell completely silent

[Satoru, Will you lend your power against the holy kingdom of stellazion]

[..... Ah that is, maybe]

With that way satoru accepted

The mission given by the goddess is the one that we should work together on I was angry in my heart but did not let it out It is unknown what gifts the goddess gave to other heroes Without knowing this, I cannot fight the other heroes Though even with the unsatisfactory motivation of satoru, I will work it out somehow Not long after that a female hero was summoned [Nice to meet you, I am hero Nagisa]

Long black hair in a ponytail, a woman with strong eyes Though she is not like the goddess, but she is quite a beauty [my name is tsubaki sent by goddess stellarushe, Hero Tsubaki, Yo]\

A female Hero, convenient for me

I immediately tried to use〈Root temptation〉To try put her under my rule [Tsu!
Did you just try do something to me!?!]

Immediately when I used my ability tsubaki jumped back Surely did she sense my ability?

I am at a loss right now, since I have not encountered such a situation Is it not effective not heroes?

[na , no it's a misunderstanding]

At anyrate I put up both my hands, to try show my innocence [It's a lie.....
Because this child says so]

She had a large decorated sword in her hands The flashes like it is giving a warning

[This is〈sword of conviction〉My gift, and you did not pass at all]

She was stroking the sword while talking about her gift Her gift seems to be a sword that judge lies As the lies are exposed it seems to be able to convict them
This is quite troublesome

With this, I cannot lie to her

[That was bad..... I will never do it again]

This is the truth

Because I know it does not work, I will not use it [..... if there is a second time I will not hesitate to cut you]

This is a scary woman

All the other heroes are strange

Though they are the goddesses choice, So I will not argue ◆

As the emperor, I will lead the rusherian empire and guide the heroes that came after me Though I don't know what she did, liz worked quite hard Our enemy is another country, so liz is working behind the scenes In the past we were lesser in terms of military strength The day that I Finish my mission I will return to the goddess The only problem would be the hero that the evil goddess stellazion the unworthy sister of goddess stellarushe, but we have three heroes So it might not be so bad if it is three on one And the lid of war was finally lifted

The capital

While I arranged products from mitsurin and instructions for them time passed quickly and I soon got into another situation The current situation is that the rusherian supporters are gathered in the north and currently occupying castle town esuteya On the other hand in the town alstroemeria the lord is supporting the second prince and the effort to bring back the old royal family At present there are plans to retake the occupied castle town From simple reconnaissance it seems that we will lose in military power, which was upsetting But for me, now is not the time to worry about that

Because I have a more important duty

[Kouya, the wind is strong and it's cold what should we do!?]

[Please endure it! We will get there soon!]

Currently I am off to the capital with amy, using flight magic with her on my back Because I am traveling at a substantial speed it is understandable that she is cold Why are we going there? It is because it is heard that the three heroes are there First I will contact them, and judge whether I should try persuade them or to kill them I was going to go by myself but Amy wanted to go there, but I enjoyed having company on the flight over there As soon as we reach the area of the capital I immediately went to the ground. To avoid the possibility of them thinking this is an attack Such thing would mean that we would get magic thrown at us I would be fine with it, but Amy who was not so accustomed to it would not like it [Stealth magic, Hide]

The moment amy used that, the image of two people melted into the air It seems to be a compound magic of wind and light, only few people can use it Sound is stopped by the wind magic and it makes you transparent by using light magic to bend light around you.It is very hard to control so It will be a long time before I can use it With that magic the heavy security is easily overcom

[If you had this magic could you have run all the way to alstroemeria easily?]

[I used magic quite often, but I was tired so I could not control such a completed spell]

This magic is certainly great, but it is not able to be used for everything [Even though we are in the capital, where are the heroes?]

This is the nation's largest city, there is a large area to cover Honestly it seems hard

[yes, I know their rough location]

The church faction or rather the empire sect does not hide the existence of the heroes rather they are the boss and very close to the service The place they can stay is limited

[First place is the king's castle]

Amy then guided me to the castle located at the north side of the city We slipped behind a bush and our image became clear again [Kouya, please can you transfer some of you magic to me]

Amy muttered so while she had a hand on mu shoulder

The concealment magic uses a large amount of magic, So I replenish it I next moment magic is pulled off my body

It is not an unpleasant thing, it feels like a stiff neck finally getting free, it was even a slight pleasure [Ahh, wait. I will not take to much]

But on the otherside, Amy who was absorbing it had a painful expression [no, it is fine]

Is a complaint here unjust?

At any rate amy recovered magic by absorbing from me, meanwhile a large scale detection magic was prepared to be cast all over the castle I did not〈village grasp〉as the chance for a headache was too high, I do not want to overextend This a bit of a digression but the reason that I do not use the gift〈pain killer〉is because it loses it's effect, which is very inconvenient [Detection, mana search]

Then light shot from Amy's hand and thinly wrapped the entire castle It is a spell that can detect mana in it's cast area

[There are three large mana signals located here, The heroes are here in the castle]

I answer her words with a nod

After use of more mana drain, we repeated the stealth magic and entered the castle

Among thrones

I was able to safely infiltrate the castle with the help of stealth magic and Amy [...it is truly a great magic, no one noticed us coming in]]

We passed many guards and knights on the way here and no one notice [I am actually one of the only in the demon country to master this spell to this level]

This is indeed a convenient spell. I wonder if I should try learn it [.....We will be there soon, three of them around the throne]

We reached a wide room with very lavish decoration, very flashy and flamboyant A red carpet is laid out, at the end is a throne

A young man around the same age as me is sitting on the throne He has fair hair and has features that make him look like a woman Only from the clothes I guessed he was a man

And a girl with a blue/green hair was next to him

And two more people with black hair were slightly further away They are talking about something

[What should we do about the hero Kouya? Should we try aproach?]

Both me and amy were slowly moving close to them with stealth magic Of Course there were also many guards, but none noticed us due to amy's magic [I think it would be better to cleanse the people who have been brainwashed by the heretics]

[No! They are weak people, the ones that as heroes we are to protect even if they were once slave to a heretical religion! We have to save them]

When we got closer we heard the conversation, it seems quite dangerous The blonde and the one with black hair have started to have an argument The girl with green hair seems worried

[Then, where do you draw the line between a heretic and the weak people?]

[It's easy! With this child's power I will be able to understand] The girl with black hair started to stroke a sword, seeming like she is taking great care with it [..... are you going to check one by one, how long will that take?]

The argument continues

Though I did not listen to much I still managed to get the rough story Apparently, the blonde man hero Nagisa wants to clear the lands Currently they have occupied the northern territories and have crushed any resistance They overlook any damage done to people in the process .....if you look at it strategically there was no mistake The black haired hero tsubaki seems to want regional stability of the occupied lands She wants to save these people from the brainwashing of stellazion The large sword in her hand seems to be her gift

.....Well, she might look at it in a humanitarian sense Next to them is the girl with green hair, the princess liz The young hero with glasses barely does anything

I was watching their conversation think [what an extreme guy] when I heard a strained voice from Amy [Sorry, Kouya. I am at my limit]

Apparently the end is near

I head out into the room where I might be able to hide [This is bad. I'll have to drain more mana, though the quality is good]

While absorbing magic Amy says such a thing

[Ah, actually the magic that you absorbed has already regenerated]

It is because of〈Super-magic regeneration〉that I am able to do this [.....what did you say? You really are crazy]

Amy mutters so with an amazed expression, I could do nothing but stay silent [Gohon. Were you able to gather any useful information from the conversation]

Honestly there was not much good information

Maybe just the gift of hero tsubaki

[.....To be honest I have just gathered a small amount on their personalities not much else]

It was a confusing time

There was a chance to get some good results

However that did not happen

[Then, I will go talk to them directly, Amy hide here I will come get you later]

[Wa, wait it is dangerous for only one person to go]

In addition to the heroes there was also at least 20 guards It would seem reckless to go in alone

[Oh it's alright, Even if it just me it will be fine]

[What do you mean?]

Amy still seemed anxious

[.....You were given a gift from the goddess then it should be alright, but be careful]

She seem to have consented

[then, I'll go]

Before amy's magic cut I moved to the thrones in a hurry

Heroes encounter

When I walked into the throne room the magic was dissolved [OI YOU! What are you doing here]

Naturally I was spotted by the guards and then surrounded quickly [I didn't expect it to come off so soon.....]

I just stood there, which might have been a mistake The ring of knights narrowed, but they are also being cautious [Wait..... I want to talk to that man]

The blonde hero, nagisa, came forth and the knights stopped what they were doing [.....but]

[Perhaps you are the man the the evil god stellazion sent, this might be tough]

Saying so. Hero nagisa pulled a sword from his waist and got ready for a fight The two other people also reacted and did the same [If it against one, we three heroes must be able to win.]

What Nagisa said seems strange to me

[well you seem to misunderstood, can I go?]

From the posture I guess hero satoru seems to use some sort of martial arts But such a common thing doesn't beat the south shrine style [.....you seem to hold a gift of increased magic, but there is power stronger than magic in this world]

While saying so, Nagisa's sword disappeared and was replaced with a machine gun Usually you don't carry such things, is it the power of a hero?

[AHAHAHAHAHA! Die!]

With such a thing the machine gun shot out fire And a rain of bullets came towards me

.....oi oi, is this alright?

This is quite trouble some

Pieces of the floor broke off and bullets danced in the sky, my figure was covered [AHAHA! I did it for you Goddess!]

Even though he hasn't seen my body, nagisa was convinced he had victory [with what are you pleased with?]

I felt carefree so I sent a tsukkomi to Nagisa [No, Why!?!]

There is no particular reason

I used wind magic to deflect the bullets [The power stronger than magic, Are you sure?]

I provoke Nagisa like that

[ARRRRGH, I have been made a fool of!]

Nagisa cried so and replace the machine gun with something else [Stop it nagisa]

So far tsubaki watch silently but now stepped forward [But]

[It is fine nagisa..... You what is your name?]

Nagisa seemed like he wanted to argue more, but tsubaki turned my way [Huh? Aa my name. Minamiya Kouya, or rather now it is just Kouya]

[There are no lies there]

She murmured so while stoking the large sword The ability of the sword was confirmed

Then the complexion of tsubaki changed rapidly [Te. Minamiya Kouya?.....
Are you related to Minamiya Byakuya]

She is from the world as me, but it is still strange someone will know my grandfather The government of every country controlled the information about him, but with the internet you can't always stop it [Ah, I am his grandchild]

[..... is that so

With that tsubaki turned away awkwardly A rude person

[Oi, Are you really the grandchild of big smasher? ]

The previously completely silent satoru now spoke up By the way "Big smasher" is one of grandfather's nicknames The nickname comes from a time where He destroyed a large area of a certain country near japan As a result large nations surrounding japan had parts disappear, this allow japan to expand the waters This is a fact that I would take to my grave We got caught in harassment of many people because of him [A, yes. Though with reluctance]

[The grand child of big smasher. I know of the rumors please can we have a match here?]

This fellow is quite a muscle brain

[No no, I did not come here to fight you, I just want to talk for a bit]

[.....what do you want to talk about?]

In place of satoru, Tsubaki spoke

[You, just what is your purpose?]

[The purpose..... it is to carry out the mission given to me by the goddess]

With a natural tone Tsubaki said that

[What is this mission?]

[It is to save the people in this country from the devil's rule]

The devil in this case is stellazion

.....I felt she was very kind..... I didn't feel like she was capable of being evil

[Therefor, we started a coup, to start a war. However, Um.....]

Tsubaki also seems to be worried though It was silent

[SHUT UP! To word of the goddess is absolute, this country will fall no matter what!]

[Nagisa, you.....]

Nagisa shouted and tsubaki scowled at him These are the heroes? They don't seem the best of friends .....Ok then the first one will be Nagisa

Reincarnated Into Other World With Cheat Like Ability ~Internet Was Strongest Even In Other World - Chapter 55

Internet 55

Encounter with the heroes

I decided I would make Nagisa have a bitter moment because he is quite annoying. With that negotiation afterwards might be easier [If I were to punish Nagisa would you let it happen?]

Tsubaki seemed ok with it

Though when I looked at Satoru there was no reaction I guess it's okay

[Then I will begin, South shrine Ancient art, type one! Sun sword galatine!]

The sword that emitted a bright light formed in my hands [I will show you the difference between our strengths]

I push out the sword and take a stance

Nagisa is trying to summon something, But that will be troublesome so I won't let him [Haaa!]

I dashed forward and stabbed Nagisa mercilessly [Uguuu!]

Though he let out his voice in pain it will not end here I continued to hit Nagisa over and over and sent a wave of cold over him [Ugaa!]

The cold covered his entire body, soon he will turn into an icicle Nagisa is trapped inside

[South shrine style, ancient art Freezing disaster]

I pulled the sword from down low up and crushed the icicle It is truly one of the best skills in the south shrine style This skill looks flashy on the outside, but it also does a do lot of damage Because this is only for punishment I chose this [Gu,uuuuu]

Nagisa who was freed from the icicle is now sitting down on the ground Then princess liz rushed up to him with shaking hair Maybe now Nagisa will be better than before .....Though, since I had this technique forced into me by my grandfather I felt a small amount of sympathy for Nagisa [Then, since the noisy one is quiet should we continue?]]

When I said so, someone approached from behind my back [What do you want?]

[What I want? I want to have a round.....]

I catch the fist of satoru and we stare at eachother [Stop it Satoru! Fighting is unnecessary and foolish ]

[.....I am not concerned with that]

Satoru just ignores tsubaki who wants this to stop [I will not stop, even if you try twist my arm]

It is trouble some if another party just decides something like that [Well ok then, let's go]

Thus the fight between us two started, though of course it was always in my favour [Kuuu, strong after all.....]

[no no, you are strong yourself]

Satouri is not weak at all

If I were to compare his martial arts to mine, he might win However there was a large difference in physical strength It must be because of the gift〈Super strength〉

Though satoru's strength is nothing to laugh about in the end either [Satoru. If you do not use the strength of the gift there will be no chance of winning]

It was the way that Nagisa was able to summon the machine gun, Satoru must have gotten one as well However, I have not seen anything of it yet [I am sorry I can't do that, it is impossible. In this situation I cannot use it]

[Well then, should we continue?]

[No,I will stop.]

Satoru lowered his fist, the fight ended easily [then, should we continue, Tsubaki?]

Since Nagisa is in face down on the ground with liz next to him. The negotiations were to be with tsubaki Such a thing was unavoidable

[.....what are we to negotiate?]

[My only wish is to take your army and leave this country and go back to the empire]

I am not interested in the fights between god's The only thing I care about is the danger to the town I live it, alstromeria [.....That we cannot do, It will break the country if we were to stop the invasion]

That is true, that might turn to troubles within the country Such things are usually hidden in invasions like this [I can understand that, but I will be troubled if it continues, it would be nice if you could return. Or would you rather I end it all in this castle here?]

If I were to destroyed the royal castle the empire's strongest fighting force will be gone [What is that, are you trying to threaten me?]

Tsubaki cautiously held onto her large sword [A threat is also a way of negotiating]

Well, I don't know many of those though

[Well, I thought it would be a problem]

But really threats against me is useless [KOUYAAA! DIEEE!]

Because I was paying too much attention to the conversation I did not notice Nagisa getting up Nagisa was standing and had an object that looked like a bomb

I no matter how much you lower your guard you will not miss such a large object if it just suddenly appeared This thing that Nagisa has done is clearly a suicide bombing attempt If I was alone it would be fine, but Amy is hiding quite closely, she might get injured I rush for the bomb that Nagisa threw and used magic to suppress it [Uooooo!]

The bomb is wrapped with wind summoned from magic and the explosion was held down It was quite powerful for a bomb, it required a lot of strength to suppress it [Haa, waaa. Why did you do something like that!]

If I did not stop it Nagisa would have been caught as well But the attack of Nagisa has not ended ye [DIEEEEE!!]

While I was occupied he pulled out a machine machine gun once again and sent a barrage of bullets [Guuuu]

That time defence magic was not enough and I was hit in the left leg Even<Tough body>Was not able to stop it My right leg became like a rag [GAAAAA!]

This is the first time I have felt pain since being reborn My anger kept rising [AHAHAHAH! I did it! I did it! ]

Nagisa kept laugh like a mad man, even though he only stopped me from using one of my limbs Seeing such a guy made my blood boil

Unconsciously I gathered magic in my hand [Die! Flame torrent, Burning Stream!]

While shouting that, A large whirlpool of flame shout out Unlike the previous attack I went all out The whirlpool turned into a phoenix and flew at Nagisa [<Absolute aegis>!]

But the magic I shot hit into a wall in front of Nagisa and disappeared easily [Why, why did you interrupt! Tsubaki!]

[.....Because, he is a hero sent by the goddess, I cannot let you kill him]

[If you disrupt, you might as well join in]

[That is just a waste of time. Because no attack will get past<Absolute aegis>]

My strongest attack was stopped

Then I will not bluff

I covered my body with magic, I became light, but also cold [.....This next action will decide everything, you can go with what I said or not, it is up to you]

Though the defence is pain, It does not stop my advantage It might just end in a prolonged war, but I think it is better to avoid such a thing But due to the anger with Nagisa I cannot stop Here is the end

[.....I understand]

I stopped once I saw tsubaki nod

[....wait]

A voice called out to me as I was leaving [what, satoru?]

[Minamiya Kouya, Next time I will use my full strength and I will defeat you]

I thought that the difference in strength was already shown though [...well then, work hard]

With that I left that place

Because I could not use my right leg I used flight magic to move I went to pick up amy who was hiding

[Kouya? How did that, the wound?]

Amy seemed to be staring at my right leg [It's fine, just ignore it]

[Ok but can you walk?]

[It's fine I do not need to move.< transfer gate >]

I used the power of a gift and a door appeared This gift allows me to pass through gates and travel great distance Because there is the limit of placing it, I had no opportunity to use it until now, It might just be a convenient skill Amy and I pass through the gate together And returned to the orphanage
